Our Bylaws provide for a number of qualifications in order to serve as a Director of the International Miniature Zebu Association.

In addition, if you apply and are elected by the members to serve on the IMZA BOD, you will be committing to serve a 3 year term. This is a volunteer position, and no financial compensation is provided. BOD members are expected to serve on a least one committee, participate in email discussions, attend regular conference calls, and attend in person the once per year annual meeting currently being held in Macon MO. BOD members are expected to be active participants in IMZA discussions & activities, work on issues as determined by the BOD, be available to receive and respond to phone calls & emails from members, and never use their BOD position to in any way influence or gain advantage when selling cattle. BOD members should be thoughtful and respectful in their communications with others via web, email, and social media, paying special attention to never publicly disparage other people, cattle or organizations. It should be understood that at all times an elected BOD member is representing the image and goodwill of the IMZA, and should represent the Association honorably in words and actions.

Please look at these items closely and verify your answers before signing and forwarding to the IMZA
