(Thursday April 5,th 2018 beginning at 8am)

The SOLO DANCER category

This competition category is open to all persons having already placed: 1st, 2nd or 3rd place in an 'Ori Tahiti competition in French Polynesia and/or a foreign competition organized in Europe, The United States, Mexico, Japan, Hawaii, etc.... and those who are graduates of The Conservatoire of French Polynesia or in the process of graduating. For example , the winners (1st , 2nd, 3rd) of The Heiva i Tahiti 2017 or those of previous Heiva, ' Ori Tahiti of Hura Tapairu, or those of Ori Tahiti solo competitions worldwide... all soloist winners can register in this category. The principle of this competition lies in the following terms: language, theme, text, and dance. This is a theme expressed through a text for each competition category. The candidate(s) will have to build on 10 themed choreographies, then display personal strategies to best express the themes he has drawn for his Otea (1 of 5 selected by the organizer), then his/her APARIMA (1 of 5 selected by the organizer). The winner (male/female) will be the one who has accumulated the most points in both categories, and who was successful (technically and artistically) in creating appropriate emotions in expressing the chosen theme.

Article 19 : Registration

Each candidate registers using a registration form and pays the necessary participation fee.

Article 20 : Registration deadline

If you have any questions, Contact us at registrations@heivainternational.com

Early Bird Registration : April 2017 to end of January 2018 --- $100 dollars/pers

Last Chance Registration : February 1st to March 30th 2018 --- $125 dollars/pers

Registration closes March 30th 2018 , unless an exception is granted by the organizer; when a competition takes place between that date and the finals at To'ata .

Article 21 : Requirements → The themes, the music and the recommendations

Applicants can access the list of themes (Otea/Aparima), sent to each of them, as of April, 2018 (UPON REGISTRATION). The themes (text, music, melodies) will be selected by a committee composed of several personalities well known the world over in 'Ori Tahiti .

OTEA : 5 themes are offered to the candidates to work with, individually, 5 days before the evening of the competition in april 2018. The texts and their music will be sent digitally.

APARIMA : 5 themes are offered to the candidates to work with, individually, 5 days before the evening of the competition in april 2018. The themes and their music will be sent digitally.

Thus, everyone could prepare up to 10 dances.

Article 22 : The Lineup drawing.

The candidates lineup is decided by the organizer, so as to alternate evenings of performing an OTEA and APARIMA. This means that each dancer will have a time to perform their OTEA and a time to perform their APARIMA.

Take into account; the other competition categories will be incorporated in the night's lineup/program.

Article 23 : The drawing of the theme for each category .

Only 1 Ote'a and 1 Aparima will be drawn by each candidate 5 days before the performance. Depending on the number of candidates, the organizer may see fit to include more than 1 of the same theme for an Ote'a or Aparima, to divide between the dancers. Thus, every time a theme is drawn in one of the two options, the label is no longer "in-play". The contest is based on a theme, whatever the category. Each theme will, then, be presented to the audience to familiarize them with the concept/requirements of the competition: Language, Theme, Text, and Dance, Music, Costume. Each candidate is called to the stage according to the lineup. The number and the text are announced to the judges. The candidate performs their dance and is evaluated.

Article 24 : The Costumes

OTEA :

Vahine/Female : the candidates shall wear a white pareo (not rolled, no hip-bands) and a white top – due to the randomness of the theme they could draw. Only greenery/natural vegetation accessories are allowed (no flowers).
