RIGHT TREE
Every Girl Matters

Based in Elk Rapids, Michigan, Right Tree is a 501(c)(3) organization established to help girls discover their worth, their gifts, their voice and their future.

Our girls are growing up in a not-so-kid-friendly world. Family breakdowns, absent fathers, the proliferation of pornography, unhealthy role models, a predatory and bullying atmosphere online, the sexualization of media and constant attacks on their self-image from every direction leave them confused, insecure and feeling very much alone.

Since 2011 we have been using outdoor recreation, adventure programming, community service & community partnerships to speak positively into girls' lives, to help them discover & celebrate their uniqueness and develop the emotional intelligence, confidence and resilience to successfully battle the negative influences in their lives. Within a Christian framework, we combine day-camp style weeks, drop-in events & multi-day trips to expose girls to new challenges, provide settings for them to share & address critical issues in their lives, help them believe in themselves & the unique gifts they bring to the world, and to discover their power, possibility & potential.

PROGRAM EXAMPLES

- kayaking Pictured Rocks
- backpacking the Porcupine Mountains
- cooking, art & water weeks
- Cedar Point
- crazy sports/games nights

- book clubs on the beach
- partnering with Freedom Builders on home repairs
- sailing Lake Michigan
- Harbor Days floats
- Sleeping Bear Dunes

While Right Tree is not specifically a Christian organization, and welcomes anyone regardless of their beliefs, every person involved in leadership has a deep personal relationship with Jesus Christ. As we work through issues and questions facing teens, Jesus will be part of those conversations because He is part of each of our stories. Our foundational belief in the inherent worth and potential of every person comes from the knowledge that we are each uniquely created by a God who loves, celebrates and dances over us.
