

Lucky Day

Email: info@adminassistance.co.uk

Telephone: 0123 456 7890

Mobile: 07539 471 094

Personal Profile

Fast worker with proficient electrical engineering skills, working for both commercial and domestic services. Able to test and install complex systems, with good knowledge of the importance in ensuring health & safety, minimising risks and hazards on and around the work site. Ability to take appropriate action where necessary, use my own initiative as well as assertiveness to achieve and meet deadlines. A responsible person able to work well under pressure and a dedicated team member.

Key Skills

- Communication skills
- Organisational skills
- Problem Solving
- Health & Safety
- Technical Engineering skills
- Good Customer Service

Employment History

[Employer D – name and address] Current

Duties and responsibilities:

- Testing and wiring lighting panels
- Provide information to support individual customer requirements such as location, common faults and danger zones
- Assist 1st and 2nd phase fix on new build's
- Rewire and install circuit breakers, rectify problems with transformers
- Installation of mains boxes, control panels, lighting system and interior rewiring
- Working alongside commercial builders, providing on-site support with electrical testing

[Employer C – name and address] 2014

Domestic Services –

Duties and responsibilities:

- Installation of solar panels
- Installation of interior lighting – such as dimmers, LED Wall lights, Ceiling Downlights, Flush lights, Panel lights and LED fluorescent lights across several new build projects in London
- Repair faults with controllers, drivers and timers
- Installation of ceiling fans and electric heaters
- Regular stock check and update of an inventory database

[Employer B – name and address] 1999

Duties and responsibilities:

- Wire and test indoor and outdoor lighting systems
- Prepare all required tools, materials and accessories for jobs
- Load and distribute workman tools and materials
- Connect circuit breakers and transformers
- Work closely with project manager to learn and acquire industry knowledge

[Employer A – name and address] 1998

Duties and responsibilities:

- To keep all areas of the worksite clean and tidy
- Help workers with carrying equipment
- Hand out and collect paperwork
- Operate the gates and assist at loading bays
- Assist the Lead Engineer with all electrical installations, testing and rectifying faults

Copyright information – Please read carefully

© This Electrical Engineer template is the copyright of Admin Assistance 2016. You may download this template to use for personal use only. You may also embed a link back to Admin Assistance website for a more comprehensive experience. However this CV template is prohibited from resale, distribution for commercial use or to make available on any other websites without the explicit permission from Admin Assistance.

Please contact Admin Assistance at info@adminassistance.co.uk to find out more about this template and services.

To use this service please email info@adminassistance.co.uk . Alternatively please visit www.adminassistance.co.uk