Merry Yuletide Greetings !!!

Before I begin the newsletter, I have to conduct a little business - If you are thinking about holiday gifts, remember that a Talisman Gift Certificate is always happily received!

Whew! Okay, that's done ...

A few years ago some scientists conducted an experiment involving a little frog. In their lab was a vat of steaming, boiling hot water. They wanted to determine how the frog would react when dropped into the vat. Armed in their white aprons, clipboards, pencils, goggles, and rubber gloves, they held the squirming little frog over the vat. Focusing intently on what they were about to do they dropped the frog ...

ZING!!!

Faster than a bolt of blazed lightning that little guy burst into the air, careening off the ceiling!

"Hmmmmm," the scientists murmured amongst themselves. They did it again. Same frog, same vat of steaming water and ...

ZING!!!

It blasted from that vat like a bat out of Hades!

The scientists murmured amongst themselves again, recorded their notes, and decided to take the experiment a step further. They took the same frog, and held it over a different vat of water. Only this time the water was lukewarm, not too cold, not too hot just right. They dropped the frog and ...

NOTHING!!!

The little guy just laid there, floating lazily; arms and legs splayed gently on the water's surface. You can just imagine the frog's thoughts: Man, this is all right! This is perfect. The frog laid in the water contented, happy, and relaxed. But - What the frog didn't know was that underneath the vat was a burner and it was slowly, but surely, heating the vat of water. The contented frog, oblivious to the changing temperature, boiled to death. End of story.

You're probably thinking to yourself: what a terrible story.

Think again. Apply this story of the frog to that of your own life right now. If you're not moving in the direction you need to go in order to realize your visions, your dreams, your aspirations in life guess what? You'll end up like our little frog. You'll die in your own complacency, mediocrity and contentment. If you're not going anywhere, you may be like our little frog friend. Be wary of contentment and complacency; never accept mediocrity.

* * * * *

So, here is the recurring theme in my readings over the past month or so. People (men and women, although my ration is 75% female to 25% male) coming in asking about new relationships and I say (many times) "Yes, I see that in the future but what's right in front of you now, most importantly, is a new job/move/divorce and let's talk about that because it is right in front of you and the relationship is quite a ways out ...".

And the response? "Well, I CAN'T (won't) change jobs/move/divorce because if I do then I will alter fate and the new man/woman may not come ..."

Um, nice try.

First, if this is being decreed by your Diety of choice ... wow. What kind of sadistic god or goddess are you worshipping??? You mean you can't be happy in your job, or move to a better location – and still be with someone you care about, and who cares back because they WON'T FIND YOU? Wow.

Or, are you locked in for fear that making that leap, that change, will result in crushing failure ... failure that you will be forced to endure, alone? Forever and ever, for all of eternity?

I'm not making fun of anyone – but this is the stuff of Greek tragedies.

Look, when I read the tarot I use the triple Celtic Cross spread. The “Cross” is what is; the line of cards to the right is what MAY be. Fate and Destiny ... you will live your fate, you may or may not realize your destiny. How does that work? Well, let's use Adolf Hitler as an example. He may have been fated to be forever known as a cruel dictator responsible for the deaths of millions ... but was that his destiny? Here we had a man who was a charismatic, brilliant speaker; passionate in his love of his country – a talented artist and gifted writer – think of where his gifts could have led him, WOULD have led him, had his heart and mind not been twisted with a malignant hatred.

None of us are destined for failure. We come to “Earth School” armed with a well planned blueprint and supported by a team of angels, ancestors and guides who are on the sidelines lending support and cheering us on. But how many times have I sat with individuals who flat out tell me that will NOT leave the job that is literally sucking the soul out of them because they “only” have fifteen more years until they are vested! Or someone who will not leave an unhappy marriage until they get a guarantee that another, better person will be there waiting ... and guess what? There are no guarantees. And when I say, “But you have been unhappy for years, you and your spouse do not even speak you live like roommates – what are you holding on to?” I get a sad look and “Yes, but how do I know things will be better if I leave?”

And here's the thing: You don't. The only certainty is that things will, for sure, be different.

So over the past year I have talked about the 2 ½ year Saturn transit through Scorpio and that is coming to a close December 23rd. Then Saturn will move out from under the microscope (and scalpel) of hyperfocused, demanding Scorpio and into freedom-loving, adventurous Sagittarius. But remember, Saturn is the great Teacher. It is always all about the lesson! Below I have condensed a blog written by Elizabeth Spring (www.elizabethspring.com) that summarizes this quite nicely.

Here we have the call of the spiritual journey—the “work” of Saturn in Sagittarius is about learning what brings meaning to life. Sound easy? It's not....this is the call to seek personal meaningfulness in this life. The search for wisdom often leads us on paths that travel right through hell before we get it right. You don't get this hunger for truth, fairness, and spiritual equality by being in a state of bliss—it's more likely you've seen and lived through the worst, and passed through the shadows of prejudice, constriction, and narrow minded injustice. Most of us are reluctant travelers through the realms of hell. (Note from Laura – for many, the “realms of hell” have been experienced during the past 2 1/2 years! So, hopefully we have figured out or gotten rid of what DOESN'T work – and now we can entertain thoughts of what WILL).

With Saturn, the planet of “concentrated focus” in expansive Sagittarius, you will be challenged to see both sides of any issue and to hold the “tension of the opposites” in your life until the gleam of understanding and wisdom breaks through. Don’t give up! As you willingly hold two opposing viewpoints or have to choose between a rock and a hard place – make a decision to wait and ponder before acting. Can you set your own self-generated priorities and find what brings inner freedom for you? But no short cuts are allowed – You can’t do a spiritual bypass on emotional problems.

waiting for your ship to come in.

Talisman's Regularly-Scheduled Readers

(203) 261-0047 for appointments - Cash payment requested

Friday: Mark Hoyt: Spirit Guided Tarot - Foot Reflexology Treatments 2-8pm. $30/30 minutes. .

We do things a bit differently at Talisman. You pay our readers AFTER the reading is finished, and if you are not happy you don't pay. NO READER can read EVERYONE successfully and everyone who works at Talisman is aware of this fact. Know that it is acceptable after the first 5 minutes of a reading to say something like, "I'm sorry, what you are saying just isn't resonating with me. I would like to stop the reading now, but thank you for your time". If you do not hear something amazing in the first five minutes, or if it just isn't right ... don't expect a reading to get better as it goes on. Readings go off track for a number of reasons - but the point is, you shouldn't pay if you are not happy. Please, just be courteous and respectful. Complaints are rare because every reader has had to pass the "ultimate interview" ... they must sit and read ME (and I've been reading over 25 years myself) and tell me something about my past/personal life, my children, home, or business that they could not possibly have heard or learned someplace else. But every reader has their unique gift and their own style, it is NOT one size fits all. Personally, I don't think anyone should get a reading more than once every 6-8 weeks and prefer you allow at least 3 months between readings ... you don't want to become a psychoholic, right? I WILL discourage you from this behavior! My goal is to see people leave an "intuitive counseling session" (because that is really what we do) feeling validated, uplifted and hopeful regardless of the situation or challenges they may be facing. That is the true measure of a "good" reading!

Available by Appointment:

Talisman's readers are available for parties and events. You can pay by the hour or allow us to set up and have your guests/attendees pay individually. We do our best to be flexible and fairly priced. Our party rates are $70 an hour, plus gas/mileage OR guests can pay if they choose to get readings at $1/minute. Please make all scheduling arrangements through Laura at (203) 261-0047. We also book private parties at the shop, with readers of your choice. Just ask!

Reflexology Fridays with Mark: This ancient healing art uses hand/thumb pressure corresponding to the body systems. The practice stimulates/relaxes stress signals resulting in relaxation (who DOESN'T love having their feet rubbed?), pain reduction, and rejuvenation of tired feet -- helping you stand tall in the world! Come in after a hard week of work and treat yourself in Mark's chair ($30/30 minutes).

Numerology Reports: Many have been asking for books or information on Numerology. Numerology has been used for thousands of years to provide deep insights into one's personality, intimate relationships, and the important influences that affect one's daily life. Now, with the Numerology Report, you can examine your life in a unique way to take advantage of unexplored opportunities, confirm talents that in your heart you know are there, or simply to figure out where to go next. You'll see all the diverse parts of your personality and how they uniquely come together to make the person you are. Through this report, you'll be able to make the most of your life in a way that wasn't possible before. There are three different Numerology Reports available - each of these providing you even greater insights into your life as well as your romantic relationships. An explanation of all three reports can be emailed to you directly - just hit "reply" to this newsletter with a request. Cost per report: $15 emailed; $18.95 printed. Laura has her own numerology report as a sample, if you'd like to see it. :

Laura: I do special, in-depth readings by appointment. My 45+ minute private sessions include a chakra check up, a print out and review of your astrological natal chart, tarot and palm reading, and more! ($50). Call the shop for an appointment, as I schedule these when the shop is closed or after-hours. I am also doing private half hour sessions ($30) before hours and on weekends. Yes, I still do $5 readings on Wednesday & Thursday but these are done in-between phone calls and waiting on patrons - you can't make an appointment, and I do get interrupted. These mini-readings usually last about 10-15 minutes. As long as there are no other scheduled readers in the shop (they drive in from a distance and it's just not fair to them) I am always happy to peek at someone's palm or throw a few cards, so don't hesitate to ask!

Blessed Yule Everyone!

Dear friends,

I feel called to give a voice to our spiritually aware younger brothers and sisters and the experiences they are having in our ever-expanding metaphysical reality. I am working on a new book, which will focus on the extraordinary experiences of young people ages from infancy to twenty-one. I would like to discuss any "out of the ordinary" energetic experiences, and how the young person is responding to it. Also if the young person has felt or has been viewed as "outside the norm" either physically, emotionally, mentally, or in a school setting. My intention is this book will ultimately allow our young people, a very large part of our collective consciousness, to be heard. In doing so, I know they will help lead the way for the rest of us to fully step into our spiritual truth and birthright. Together we can change the world. If you are a young person, or a parent of a young person, and would like to share your story with me, please email me at patriciabrooks@godisinthelittlethings.com. Thank you!

My own daughter Daisy has weekly counseling and Seven Rays Healing sessions with Rev. Patricia Brooks. In addition I thoroughly enjoyed reading both her books (below) Messages from the Animals and Messages from the Golden Angels – two books which are part of her Divinely guided book series God is in the Little Things. SEVEN RAYS HEALING: This is a Divine universal healing technique that is many eons old. It is a very powerful and highly diversified healing energy that heals all human conditions, even the soul's karmic baggage from past lives that must be cleared along with the associated physical manifestations. The Seven Rays heals on all levels of existence simultaneously. Each Ray possesses a specific color and force for healing different conditions. Guided and regulated by the Ascended Masters, each Ray has associated conditions that are worked on when that Ray is called in. It is healing energy that is channeled straight from God, through the Ascended Masters' healing temple, through the facilitator to you. It is a more intense connection to Cosmic Light that you have ever imagined. Those that are drawn to this work are the ancient healers of Atlantis, who have known this modality before. They are always pulled toward this work because of their own deep sense of recognition.

Healing sessions are conducted in Rev. Patricia's home in Monroe by appointment. The cost for a half hour Seven Rays healing session is $35; One hour Seven Rays healing session with spiritual counseling is $60. Email for an appointment: patriciabrooks@godisinthelittlethings.com

Astrology Corner

By Alethea Hunt, Astrologer

We are certainly closing the year with a “bang!”, as December is quite an astrologically active month indeed! We have a plethora of mutual receptions in play juicing up the sky, from Sun/Jupiter, to Mars/Uranus, and last but certainly not least, Saturn/Pluto! You can read all about them by following the respective links to excerpts from previous newsletters I've done on these topics. Speaking of Saturn, this is a BIG month because Saturn steps into Sagittarius for the first time in roughly 29 years! This ingress happens on December 23rd – right smack in between the Winter Solstice & Christmas. Remember how I've been saying all along that one key lesson of Saturn in Scorpio has been about knowing when to cut our losses and stop any so-called “energy sinks” in our life? If we've done well with minimizing any energy leakage due to people or circumstances we have too heavy an investment in and have managed to put the brakes on anything that's been draining heading into Saturn in Sadge, this roughly 2 1/2 year long period will be a time when we can finally concentrate our efforts on slow but steady growth & upward mobility.

Now it's definitely not going to be overnight, and we still have to continue to look at things that may present an impediment to this, but if we slowly start to work on getting some kind of step-by-step plan organized for our future, we may see substantial results before Saturn exits this sign in early 2018. Obviously we're a long way away from this, so let's not put the cart before the horse. For now, let's just be prepared to concentrate on NOT biting off more than we can chew in any respect in life, because that's when Saturn will be the most inclined to curb us - whether this is with respect to a plan for business growth, our education if we're in school or going back to school, career growth, etc.. During Saturn in Sadge, we do well to pick expansion in ONE arena and proceed slowly and carefully for best results! Saturn in Sagittarius also holds a theme of curbing excess, so if we're getting out of hand in any respect in life (financially, dietarily, taking on too many commitments, partying too much, etc.) this will be the time to voluntarily check ourselves so Saturn doesn't do this for us. Another big theme: beneficial time management & putting a stop to procrastination.

But first let's talk about how if we haven't gotten a wrangle on exactly where time, effort, and energy leakages are still occurring in our life, the very beginning of December may help us start to get our ducks in a row with Mars in Capricorn's sextile to Saturn in Scorpio on the 1st. This is an energy that can help us transition into Saturn in Sadge lean, mean, and at “fighting weight” so to speak, so now is the time to be proactive about tying up any loose ends where more energy has poured out than come in – if it's not yielding a return-on-investment, time to drop it like it's hot! Also: if you have a vision for yourself, your biz, or your life really going places during Saturn in Sadge, now's the time to at least get the initial stages of - maybe not a 5 year plan – but definitely at least a 2-3 year plan going for what you hope to accomplish during this time. Concentrate on the major objectives you would like to tackle and go from there. Really, I cannot emphasize enough how beneficial having a growth plan will be going forward – you WILL see results if you work toward this end during Saturn in Sadge!

In other areas, a multi-tasking Gemini Full Moon occurs on the 6th – while this can be helpful when it comes to juggling multiple balls in the air (as is so common this time of year!), we should also be careful of potentially biting off more than we can chew – we are in Sadge season, and this is certainly one hazard of the terrain! This is a good Moon for bouncing ideas off people - be it family or friends – but we should also be careful about just how far we’re opening that big mouth of ours so that we don’t engage in gossip OR spill the beans about something we’re not supposed to know or tell. This lunation may be a bit mentally overstimulated as well, and for health reasons we might consider also the need for a mental “break” in one form or another so we’re not physically run-down.

I realize ya’ll have been listening to me carry on about the Pluto-Uranus square for almost 3 years now, but I do need to mention it once again because we have the penultimate square in this series occurring on the 15th. Yes, this means we are indeed in the home stretch! Remember the instability this duo signifies is all about pushing us out of safe yet confining circumstances so we figure out how to self-initiate change in order to adapt & evolve. We may be getting tests on our ability to do so throughout December as the Sun, Mercury, & Venus periodically bounce off these two planets, and I think the big keynote is checking and controlling ourselves rather than trying to control others. This is because - from the middle of the month onward - we have this Uranian energy pushing back against all these Capricorn planets & reminding us we’re not the boss of anyone but ourselves. Especially if we have teens or tweens, winter break may present some challenges from a parenting standpoint, as putting anyone “under our thumb” is likely to inspire backlash during this time. If we have to impose limits, rules, or set boundaries, we should do our best to simultaneously respect others’ autonomy and temper this with a spoonful of sugar by being polite & respectful & minding our words. If we can avoid saying things like “because I say so” and agree to treat the other party as an equal by imposing ground rules or standards upon our own behavior as well, this may help – think of something along the lines of “I’ll agree not to do X if you’ll agree not to do Y”.

This energy comes to a peak around the time of the Winter Solstice (December 21st), which is super Saturn-y flavored thanks to a Capricorn New Moon occurring on the same evening the Sun arrives in this sign. In addition, we have a total of 5 planets inhabiting Capricorn on this day – that’s a whole lotta goat-y goodness! This creates a more solemn energetic backdrop overall, and it appears Old Man Winter really arrives in full force at least in an energetic sense! Some may be feeling the pressures of the holiday season quite strongly around this time because this is a sign associated with the burden of duty, so one thing I can recommend is NOT trying to “do it all ourselves” and instead being willing to delegate responsibilities here and there. Alternatively, if we were indeed to control-freak, we might be more inclined to freak out – especially since we have that Mars-Uranus mutual reception still in play which is rather volatile & can signify random outbursts of anger that seem to come from out of nowhere.

But enough of all that - let's talk about intentions for this New Moon, because it is a highly pragmatic lunation ideal for goal-setting. This is a great time to set an intention for a new start in our careers, for a new business objective, or new ideas for better parenting our children since Mercury is involved with this lunation. This Moon nurtures protective instinct, and with its ruler Saturn hanging on the last degree of Scorpio, perhaps this regards protecting our children from anything potentially traumatic or dysfunctional this time of year. Especially if our family is one inclined to put the "fun" in dysfunction, this influence could be used, for example, to think of a plan to better shield the kids from any potential "crazy" during the holidays. On the whole, this Moon highlights boundaries and there is a good possibility if we keep certain topics of conversation off-limits, it may be helpful. We could also use this Moon as an opportunity to have a talk with someone about needed boundaries - perhaps as a precaution in advance of the upcoming holidays, or maybe it's independent of this entirely where we simply need to find a respectful, polite way of addressing where our lines are. Regardless, being adult enough to establish certain parameters for our own conduct independent of what others do or don't do is important, because the only one we can ever truly control is ourselves. To this end, focusing on controlling what comes out of our OWN mouths rather than someone else's will be the way to go since self-control and willpower are highlighted by this lunation. In another context, we could also look at this purposefulness & resolve of this Moon as useful for health & diet matters due its proximity to Mercury. So if you're thinking about getting an early start on a New Year's resolution to set self-imposed limits of some kind that yield results, don't put it off because this Moon can help!
