Merry Beltane! (aka "May Day")

The astrology of the time? Summed up in April blog post by Clarissa of www.vivacombusta.com :

A cruel summer (or winter, for the southern hemisphere) is ahead of us as Saturn reenters the sign of Scorpio from Sunday, June 17 at 7:36pm until Thursday, September 17 at 9:49pm. Saturn first entered Scorpio October 5, 2012 and stayed there until December 23, 2014, when it left Scorpio for Sagittarius. Most of us felt a weight lifted off us once Saturn entered Sagittarius; the transit of Saturn through Scorpio was brutal, seemed extraordinarily long, and left ruin in its wake. Saturn turned retrograde (when a planet appears to travel backwards and retraces its steps) on March 14 and is currently working its way back to the war zone of Scorpio. This summer transit of Saturn returning to Scorpio is the last time Saturn will transit this sign for the next 29 years. As devastating as the first transit was, this last jaunt through Scorpio will provide many last chance opportunities to review and correct mistakes and unfinished business from the original transit; a clean sweep allowing for clean breaks, permanent endings and final resolve and resolutions.

I have been writing off and on about the Saturn transit through Scorpio and what it's meant. Saturn in Scorpio lifts the rock and makes us take a long, uncomfortable look at the ugliness that lies beneath – and expects us to deal with it. Anyone who thought they skated by and managed to maintain a toxic job, bad relationship, difficult family situation (whatever) intact – LOOK OUT. Because Saturn in Scorpio is coming back around, like The Universe is holding a bowling ball and that situation is a split. Spoiler alert: No pin will be left standing.

You see, in New-Age philosophy we are told we can manifest anything we desire – this, versus a Christian adage of “Let Go and Let God”. But the fact is, either way nothing comes for free; no free rides and eventually we all have to pay the piper. No one gets everything they want, the very thought is ridiculous as there is no perfect job, no perfect marriage, no perfect family. And it is very difficult to navigate the middle ground. Inside we know the truth – it’s how we choose to react to the truth that creates chaos. Example: You know your relationship/marriage is over. Done. It’s how you choose to apply this knowledge that makes the outcome (and by “outcome” I mean moving forward) easier or harder to contend with. Because when we bargain with ourselves, we usually slow the process.

So what is it? Are you Coping? Enabling? Biding your time? Waiting for that perfect moment as the days turn into weeks and the years slip by?

I found it very interesting that there was a huge response to March’s newsletter (about my friend Skye) and very little feedback to April’s (Denise’s spiritual journey and Finding Feathers). I thought about the number of people who have come to Talisman over the years, talking about opening a spiritual center or a shop “like mine”; doing healing work or what have you ... some undefined “work” in the metaphysical field after being told (usually by a psychic) they have some gift or power they need to develop for the good of all humanity. I’m not joking, I hear this on an individual basis maybe six times a week. And even though I am never the psychic who broached the whole “gift” thing, I AM the one who gets asked how to proceed – what are the next steps? And I say, “If you are trained to do Reiki – do Reiki! Do energetic healings on trees, pets, people ... HEAL, if you are a healer!” I am not being negative in any way – I say HEAL, already! If you want to write a book – well it won’t write itself, so get cracking! And I am asked about the “energetic exchange” (ie money) that is supposed to change hands. And that brings me back to Denise – who spent 27 YEARS running a restaurant, YEARS training in energy work before opening her spiritual center Finding Feathers. Me, I opened Talisman eight years ago and for the first five I worked 14-16 hour days and did not pay myself, rather I put it back into the business. FIVE YEARS.

On Thursday (yesterday) I interviewed a new reader for the shop, Niki – she is making her debut on Tuesdays and this Saturday as well as the 22nd. More on her background below – but talking with her I was reminded again that like myself and every intuitive I know, this “career” is a work in progress that cast a pall on relationships and kept us on the outside looking in for most of our young lives. We were the oddballs – and that’s not ever a comfortable place to live, and usually very lonely too. This is why I have worked hard to make Talisman an open and inviting environment, a community resource, so people can feel comfortable and have a place to gather and talk. That was in my “Vision Statement” (I flat out refused to write a business plan for my Accountant!) it was true then and it’s true today. I’m not a fancy person, and I never wanted a boutique – I wanted a place where kids and pets and all kinds of people could meet and talk and learn and shop.

I achieved my Vision but it came at a price: Exhausting hours, time away from family (so many missed games, tournaments, competitions) working through vacations ... see? No free rides. But Talisman is authentic, it is ethical, and it has facilitated change and growth. Well worth the price I paid.

Just like this last Saturn transit through Scorpio – it will glide over the areas of our life where we have maintained our integrity, but stop – point – and demand we deal with the area(s) where we are just “getting by”. It’s a hard thing, but not a bad thing.

Or, as Omie of www.O-Lightning.com put it:

Saturn is at the degree of his station.

4 degrees Sag and prepared to go back.

One last round of finality.

A kick in the teeth for them holding on to what has died.

A solemn vow and a promise for them that needs one.

Oh this summer is bright and dark with promise.

It’s the last hand of the card game before we stand up from the table and begin to walk ahead with our new lives. Our new lovers, sweethearts, and friends, our new enemies and standing solidly on the graves of those who have been buried these last two years.

Oh that WILL happen...

Not Yet! We are in the earthquake, and there is something here for us after all.

Unexpected.

We do things a bit differently at Talisman. You pay our readers AFTER the reading is finished, and if you are not happy you don't pay. NO READER can read EVERYONE successfully and everyone who works at Talisman is aware of this fact. Know that it is acceptable after the first 5 minutes of a reading to say something like, "I'm sorry, what you are saying just isn't resonating with me. I would like to stop the reading now, but thank you for your time". If you do not hear something amazing in the first five minutes, or if it just isn't right ... don't expect a reading to get better as it goes on. Readings go off track for a number of reasons - but the point is, you shouldn't pay if you are not happy. Please, just be courteous and respectful. Complaints are rare because every reader has had to pass the "ultimate interview" ... they must sit and read ME (and I've been reading over 25 years myself) and tell me something about my past/personal life, my children, home, or business that they could not possibly have heard or learned someplace else. But every reader has their unique gift and their own style, it is NOT one size fits all. Personally, I don't think anyone should get a reading more than once every 6-8 weeks and prefer you allow at least 3 months between readings ... you don't want to become a psychoholic, right? I WILL discourage you from this behavior! My goal is to see people leave an "intuitive counseling session" (because that is really what we do) feeling validated, uplifted and hopeful regardless of the situation or challenges they may be facing. That is the true measure of a "good" reading!

Available by Appointment:

Talisman's readers are available for parties and events. You can pay by the hour or allow us to set up and have your guests/attendees pay individually. We do our best to be flexible and fairly priced. Our party rates are $70 an hour, plus gas/mileage OR guests can pay if they choose to get readings at $1/minute. Please make all scheduling arrangements through Laura at (203) 261-0047. We also book private parties at the shop, with readers of your choice. Just ask!

Reflexology Fridays with Mark: This ancient healing art uses hand/thumb pressure corresponding to the body systems. The practice stimulates/relaxes stress signals resulting in relaxation (who DOESN'T love having their feet rubbed?), pain reduction, and rejuvenation of tired feet -- helping you stand tall in the world! Come in after a hard week of work and treat yourself in Mark's chair ($30/30 minutes).

Laura: I do special, in-depth readings by appointment. My 45+ minute private sessions include a chakra check up, a print out and review of your astrological natal chart, tarot and palm reading, and more! ($50). Call the shop for an appointment, as I schedule these when the shop is closed or after-hours. I am also doing private half hour sessions ($30) before hours and on weekends. Yes, I still do $5 readings on Wednesday & Thursday but these are done in-between phone calls and waiting on patrons - you can't make an appointment, and I do get interrupted. These mini-readings usually last about 10-15 minutes. As long as there are no other scheduled readers in the shop (they drive in from a distance and it's just not fair to them) I am always happy to peek at someone's palm or throw a few cards, so don't hesitate to ask!

And much, much more! Knowing how to interpret body language will give you a distinct advantage and can help you avoid costly or embarrassing mistakes and decisions. You will both learn a very useful new skill and have a lot of fun doing it!

Andrew Neblett is a certified hypnotist (CT. REGISTERED HYPNOTIST, HYP.0000114), Natural Health Consultant, Energy Kinesiologist, TBM practitioner (Total Body Modification), instructor, Hypnosynergetics instructor, Intuitive Counselor, Herbalist, and a Process Coach. Saturday, April 23 - Talisman After Dark 7-9pm. $10 Co-hosted by China & Laura. Over the past couple of years, Laura has been asked many times about creating a study group which would offer an opportunity to learn about magick and the metaphysical realm . So after much thought, we have created a format that will flow sort of like a talk show with full audience participation. Current events, a main topic, a demonstration of some sort and ending with question and answer time will create a well-rounded evening (we hope!). We are calling this “Talisman After Dark” because darker (meaning non-child friendly) topics that we don’t normally discuss upstairs during working hours may be discussed or explored. Session Three: Current events; a discussion on “Shrines versus Altars” and we will demonstrate types and methods of making offerings. As always, we end with a Q & A Session.

SEVEN RAYS HEALING: This is a Divine universal healing technique that is many eons old. It is a very powerful and highly diversified healing energy that heals all human conditions, even the soul's karmic baggage from past lives that must be cleared along with the associated physical manifestations.

The Seven Rays heals on all levels of existence simultaneously. Each Ray possesses a specific color and force for healing different conditions. Guided and regulated by the Ascended Masters, each Ray has associated conditions that are worked on when that Ray is called in. It is healing energy that is channeled straight from God, through the Ascended Masters' healing temple, through the facilitator to you. It is a more intense connection to Cosmic Light that you have ever imagined. Those that are drawn to this work are the ancient healers of Atlantis, who have known this modality before. They are always pulled toward this work because of their own deep sense of recognition.

Healing sessions are conducted in Rev. Patricia's home in Monroe by appointment. The cost for a half hour Seven Rays healing session is $35; One hour Seven Rays healing session with spiritual counseling is $60.

Rev. Patricia Brooks is working on a new book and documentary project and she needs your help! Rev. Patricia's intent is to raise awareness of the Consciousness of today's children and explain how we can create an environment where they are not only accepted but understood and nurtured. Through telling their stories, we will make it safe for everyone to understand their Spiritual Truth and embrace their Highest Self. If you know a young person that is spiritually aware or has spiritual experiences and would like to be interviewed and share their story and abilities in order to help others, please email Rev. ### Astrology Corner

By Alethea Hunt, Astrologer

As we begin our astrological overview of the 5th month of the year, a Full Moon in Scorpio greets us on May 3rd. This Full Moon forms a T-square with the Taurus Sun & Jupiter in Leo, perhaps giving us a perspective on appetites and vices of all stripes. The Scorpio Moon does call to mind insatiable hungers, but beyond this it also favors gaining psychological insight into our habits, needs, and cravings with the caveat that we also not make it excessively complicated. We have to balance this extreme by also simplifying when appropriate instead of tying ourselves in knots via an extraneous amount of navel-gazing, so let's not get too existential with it, ya? Jupiter in Leo could also add a distraction-factor to the mix, like some kind of fun but rob-you-blind, gold-digging, Good-Time Charlie, so we should be mindful of diversions that involve too much playtime, too many parties, or an over-emphasis on our children or a lover as we wade through the murky emotional waters of the Scorpio Moon. There is always the chance of erring on the other end of this polarity and keeping it too simple by focusing solely on the physical plane in lieu of the emotional!

For magickal purposes, the Scorpio Moon's magnetic charge is great for energetically pulling things to us that we need so long as we approach this very consciously and are careful about the space we're in and energy level we're vibrating with when doing so. This is not the time to come from a "needy" place, rather an empowered one. Aristotle once postulated that nature abhors a vacuum, and the Scorpio Moon can be just that so what we want to avoid is sucking just any old thing into our orbit. We must be in the right space and prepared to put an energetic "reserved parking" sign out into the ethers very consciously so that whatever pulls in can read this invisible ink and either align with it and pull up curbside, or if not, get the hell out of Dodge – there is just no half-assing it under the Scorpio Moon!

Looking toward mid-month, it will be important to know when to shut our mouths as a Gemini Mars finds itself grating against Saturn in Sagittarius! Sometimes less is more – particularly if/when we're ticked off about something – and Saturn asks that we self-censor or BE censored by someone else! This influence - exact on the 15th - lasts close to a week on either side of this date, so be mindful and cautious to avoid conflicts; particularly with parents and authority figures. Don't "come off hot", court controversy, or engage in verbal pissing contests – know when to let it be. It can be helpful that Venus in Cancer glides into graceful contact with forgiving Neptune around this time, as we could choose to find a contrasting softness to fall into rather than run ourselves into the spikes of the aforementioned Mars-Saturn opposition. Even if we don't feel the same way about an issue, the basic kindness and sensitivity this trine conveys may at least allow us to let go of judgment, and to strengthen emotional or family bonds via compassionate understanding when we release a need to agree on all points.

On the 18th, we have a Taurus New Moon PLUS a Mercury Retrograde kicking off on the same day! This lunation forms a loose opposition to Saturn in Sadge, possibly suggesting the curbing of excess spending. Looking at this Moon, financial matters ARE highlighted since Taurus is a Material Girl, but the Saturn influence suggests the inclusion of spending caps/limits along with this – I think this is a great energy for creating budgets or for putting money away to grow in some kind of savings plan. Purchases *are* OK at this time, but do bear in mind the usefulness or longevity of an item and always keep an eye on quality. If you're looking to set an intention (magickal or otherwise) for this lunation, I would put some mojo out there involving matters on the material plane since a Taurus Moon + Saturn is a super earthy combination. It could be about creating a financial safety net for ourselves that we can draw from in the future, or it could involve the creation of a revenue stream that comes with some form of income stability, but keep the vision on long-term.

On the subject of the Mercury Retrograde: This one's in conversational Gemini, and because Mercury dances in and out of a square with Neptune both before and after the retrograde, we may find that we'll have to repeat ourselves more than a few times and so should take extra pains to communicate as clearly as possible to avoid misunderstandings. This energy peaks in the days surrounding the 9th & 29th, respectively, so I would bookmark these as days to avoid having to sign any critical documents or engage in important correspondence. However, these dates *do* denote good times to receive intuitive message... provided we can tame the Monkey Mind, of course (hmmmm.... maybe with some relaxing mood music?). Try sitting in meditation or prayer and petition Divinity that your Angels, Guides, and/or Highest Self comes through with guidance, and then pay attention to the signs and symbols you receive; particularly while in these states or even in your dreams since Spirit may use this medium to communicate as well.

In related news, the aforementioned stress hits between Mercury & Neptune say "Do *NOT* drink and drive" – especially during the week of the 25th when Mars will be involved! I would advise everybody to be alert for the possibility of intoxicated motorists or even sleepy drivers during these times if they're out on the road - not to make anyone nervous, you understand - but just as a sensible precaution. While this can be a good time to undertake a road trip as a retreat to "get away from it all", more people on the road does mean we'd do well to avoid spacey drivers and to listen to any intuitive messages we get if we see a car doing things like drifting out-of-lane. Carrying something like a St.

Christopher's medallion, or saying a little prayer for safe passage before our trip, or mentally surrounding our cars in a bubble of white light, or even taking this a step further by blessing our vehicle may give us the extra layer of spiritual protection we need to have peace-of-mind during our excursion.

Lastly, this Mercury Retro can put us back into contact with people; specifically siblings, kin, & neighbors we might not have talked to in a while. Broadly speaking, with the lingering Mercury-Neptune influence in play this month, just keep good conversational boundaries in effect, don't drunk text/dial anyone, and double check all the contact info you get and be sure to put it in a safe place where you can't lose it because this can be a forgetful combination – it's the classic "Where'd I put my keys???" pairing, LOL. If you do manage to lose the digits of someone whom you reconnected with during this time despite all this, know that it may actually be a sign.
