Rehearsal

Rehearsal will be the evening before the pageant. THIS REHEARSAL IS MANDATORY. We will begin promptly at 7pm. You will receive your shirt to wear for the parade of contestants at this time. We will have a quick informative meeting with answers to any questions you may have at this time. Rehearsal is closed to the public. Since the rehearsal is closed to the public, contestants are free to wear comfortable clothing, hair in curlers and no makeup if desired. We recommend the contestants rehearse in the same shoes they will wear in each phase of competition.

Each contestant will have a private interview with the judges and will be assessed individually and comparatively in Fair Attire and Evening Gown competition.

Competition Clothing and Expectations

Private Interview

Dress or Suit, Jewelry and shoes of choice- no hats, gloves or purses. INTERVIEWS will begin promptly at 1 pm beginning with Junior Queen contestants and advance by age categories and will account for 50% of a contestant's total score. All interviews will be five minutes long and will be timed and monitored. Judges have been instructed to avoid current affairs and religious or political questions. The judges and contestants are not allowed to shake hands or have any physical contact. You will report to the education building to wait your turn, if you are not there when it is your turn you will not receive a score for this part of competition, you will not be chased down.

Fair Attire

Something you would wear to the Lonoke County Fair and Rodeo. Fair Attire will account for 15% of a contestant's total score. Over all first impression, stage presence, and confidence are also included.

Evening Gown

Evening Gown of choice. Jewelry and accessories should be tasteful and compliment the gown. High heeled shoes are recommended but not required. Evening Gown Competition will account for 35% of a contestant's total score. Judging will be based on overall first impression, beauty, stage presence, personality, grace, charm, walk, appropriateness of evening gown and composite appearance. Each contestant will be asked an on-stage question and will be allowed a maximum of 30 seconds for their extemporaneous response, her ability to answer confidently, as well as her tone of voice, will be included in the evening gown score. Judges are instructed not to judge the gown but to judge the contestant in the gown.

Dressing and Backstage

There will be only one person allowed in dressing area with contestant, no one will be allowed with contestant past dressing area door. Anyone found backstage that is not a contestant or assistant of the pageant will be asked to leave. We have ladies who will be there to help and direct the girls. NO MALES!! The pageant director or fair board will not be responsible for loss or damage to clothing or other personal items left in the dressing area. ABSOLUTELY NO CELL PHONES or CAMERAS ARE ALLOWED IN DRESSING AREA!!

Judging

The judges will be appointed by the Lonoke County Fair Pageant Director. They will be persons well qualified to judge a competition of this kind. Their decision will be final. Critiques will not be provided to anyone, nor will any contestant, or any representative of a contestant, be allowed to approach the judges at any time.

Registration

Upon arrival contestants are to report immediately to registration table, at which time you will check in and receive your number which will be pinned on each outfit on the right top of thigh before being allowed on stage. No one is allowed on stage before pageant, no exceptions. Check-in time will be no later than 12:30, interviews will begin promptly at 1pm. beginning with Jr. division. If you are late for this and it is determined by director to be a non-emergency event you will be disqualified and forfeit entry fee. All registrations for afternoon competition have the same deadline to check-in so don't wait until the last minute because we will stop check-in at 12:30. You will be allowed to check-in anytime between 10:00-12:30.

Advancing to Arkansas State Fair Queen Competition

It is not required but is strongly encouraged to compete in the Arkansas State Fair Queen Competition in October. Your decision will need to be made before pageant as to if you will advance to the Arkansas State Fair competition should you be crowned Lonoke County Ms. Fair Queen. If crowned queen, meet all requirements set forth by Arkansas State Fair Queen, and are interested in competing in the Arkansas State Fair Queen competition, you will need to report to the dressing room as soon as pageant is over. Entry fee of $100 will have to be paid at this time along with all paperwork completed by you and pageant director. This must be done at this time due to time urgency and you will get your packet in a timely manner.

The Lonoke County Pageant Director and or Lonoke County Fair and Livestock Association Management reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the contest, and the right to amend or add to these rules as their judgment may determine. Any contestant who fails to abide by any of the above rules can be disqualified from the competition by the Pageant Director and/or Fair Management.

Contact information: We will primarily communicate through e-mail and text with the contestants. Please ensure that you have provided a good e-mail address that is checked on a regular basis, as well as a good phone number(s) that accepts texting. You can follow our Facebook page at Lonoke County Fair Queen for information as well or the fair website at www.lonokefair.com.
