CHILDREN'S BOOK AUTHOR

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

A Latina born and raised in a one block radius in Passaic, NJ, Marisol had an amazing childhood with the neighboring children with whom she remains friends with till this day. Then life happens, everyone grows up and go on their merry way. As an adult and in her spare time she would write short stories as a hobby that became a rewarding passion.

Recognizing that our children need to see more multi-cultural and bilingual books with characters that represent them; her first book The Princess and the Chocolate Castle incorporates English and Spanish translations on the same page. She believes installing Bilingual fictional reading entices the imagination giving power of creation while practicing a second language. With the lively imagination from her daughter, niece, and nephews and their passion for reading it was a very easy process to bring her daughter's made-up childhood stories to life.

The Princess and the Chocolate Castle is a story in English and Spanish about a lonely Princess who lived in a chocolate castle looking for someone to share her chocolate with.

Book includes Princess Nayaleena's favorite, easy to make chocolate recipes. English and Spanish translations are on the same page.

About the Book

Christmas at the Chocolate Castle is a take on Twas the night before Christmas but at the Chocolate Castle.

The Princess is startled by Santa when he fell off his sleigh. She invites him in and they have some brownies and hot chocolate. This fun Children's Christmas Picture Book is a spin off of the Princess and the Chocolate Castle.

Pedro and the Puzzle Palace

Pedro only wanted to play but never did he imagine he had to play to find his way. You see, there was a reason for the puzzles in the Puzzle Palace. The King had to prepare the young Prince for his future position as King. He learned how to deal with fears and challenges placed on his path to focus on the true prize. Getting to the prize gave him the confidence he needed by practicing patience and concentration.
