The Becker Family Headstone, St. Mary's Cemetery, Osmond, Nebraska

The Becker family, led by Peter Becker, immigrated to Wisconsin in 1870, and continued on to Nebraska, claiming a homestead in Colfax County in October, 1871.

Anna Klitz and Hubert Becker married on November 13, 1877, in Olean, Nebraska, and they started their family which included eleven children.

Hubert worked at and operated a general store in the town of Dodge, Nebraska, until the fire of 1895 destroyed most of downtown Dodge. Hubert moved to Osmond, Nebraska, shortly thereafter. Anna and their children followed Hubert to Osmond by 1900.

In Osmond, the Becker family owned a farm just outside of town before moving into town. Hubert again worked in a general store until he retired in 1918.
