

Top stories in this newsletter

VAV connects Brian to the Boston Herald

VAV get's another call from Fox and Friends

PTSD Awareness Night

VAV connects Brian Callahan to the Boston Herald

In an eye opening set of front page stories, the Boston Herald opens its readers eyes to significant problems at the Boston VA in regard to Traumatic Brain Injuries (TBI) . Then the Boston Herald followed up with a second story featuring a local veteran that VAV helped, by the name of Brian Callahan.

We ask that you support The Boston Herald as they are a publication that gives veterans a voice in your community. Check out www.bostonherald.com and stories link this one http://www.bostonherald.com/news/local\_coverage/2017/05/special\_report\_vet\_dumbfounded\_after\_va\_drops\_ball\_on\_brain\_mass

VAV called in by Fox and Friends to discuss Senator Warren's hypocrisy on veterans

In a bi-partisan and non political statement, Veterans Assisting Veterans (VAV) spokesman was called into Fox and Friends and asked his thoughts on Senator Elizabeth Warren's hypocrisy on healthcare. Warren claimed that the GOP's healthcare plan would kill people, yet she hasn't done a thing to help veterans or change the VA healthcare system in her own state.

Check out the news clip here. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wZOvF5VFdxQ>

VAV holds PTSD Awareness Night for Cambodian Americans

Special thanks to the Lowell Sun for covering the first VAV PTSD Awareness Night. The meeting was held at VFW Post 662 in Lowell, MA. VAV brought together the community and resources for veterans into one room. The organizations helping veterans and that spoke were Lowell Vets Center, Veterans Liberty House, VNOC, Elder Services of the Merrimack Valley, Lowell City Councilors Rodney Elliott and Rita Mercier, Mike Mills of VAV and Therapy Services and much more.

VAV asks that you support and read the Lowell Sun, which is a friend to veterans. Read their story and coverage of the night here.

http://www.lowellsun.com/breakingnews/cj\_31007522/lowell-vet-center-reaches-out-cambodians-offer-ptsd

Veterans Assisting Veterans
www.vetesassistingvets.com
PO BOX 274, Dracut, MA 01826
781-316-4486—Philip.moloney@vetsassistingvets.org

TAX ID 04-55431821