

Courtney Litvak Named Childproof America Ambassador

Growing up in Katy, Texas gave me the opportunity to play sports, attend summer church camps, run on playgrounds, and attend the high-ranking school district, Katy ISD.

However, during my junior year at Cinco Ranch High School, our family would be forever changed. Following a traumatic event at age 17, I sought to cover up my grief by surrounding myself with unhealthy relationships, and I attempted to medicate my pain. This put me on the radar of traffickers within my school who were looking for students who were vulnerable. A fellow athlete pursued me on campus and encouraged me to meet up with a pimp, who was a former student of Cinco Ranch High School in Fort Bend County.

As my parents fought to save my life, my story was thrown into the spotlight where people fiercely debated the reality of my situation. Some supported my family, knowing something very bad must be happening to take me from my family and childhood home, while others ruthlessly attacked my family, accusing my parents of being controlling, helicopter parents.

I believe most people refused to accept that sex trafficking could be happening right in their own backyards.

The next several years would take me on a hellish journey across the United States. I was under the emotional and physical control of a network of extremely heinous, abusive people who exploited my vulnerability. It is only by the grace of God that my life was saved, and I returned to my family who embraced me with open arms.

The intensive residential recovery program that followed saved my life, restored my soul and healed my tremendous pain. The Refuge for Women provided the tools that I needed to process and heal my trauma while re-connecting me with my faith and foundation of which I was raised on.

It is an honor to be named Childproof America Ambassador. I'm so blessed to be given a platform to use my suffering for a monumental purpose! God is never blind to our tears. He is never deaf to our prayers. He will not remain silent to our grief. God intentionally purposes our pain! The knowledge that I have gained about this horrendous crime will empower families and prevent their children from falling prey to master exploiters.

My work as Ambassador will include developing legislation to mandate sex trafficking education in Texas school districts, peer to peer interventions, public speaking education, training of professionals to effectively identify and serve victims, support local, state and national leaders to improve policy and protect victims from being criminalized.

I want any and all individuals impacted by human trafficking to know that there is a way out. I am a walking miracle of perseverance and living proof of Gods' faithfulness and mercy. I would not have chosen my life to have transpired in any other way. My brokenness led me to my true calling to save lives and radiate hope and redemption that can only be truly obtained through Jesus Christ. I find comfort in knowing that God will give me justice.

We are never given a battle or hardship that we cannot handle. I am not defined by what has happened to me. What defines my heart and my integrity is making the choice to dedicate my suffering to aid others and set an example of what it looks like to become a true, new creation in Christ. I forever choose to live by faith and no longer by fear.

On the journey,

Courtney Litvak, Childproof America Ambassador

What Are People Saying

About Our Recent Speaking Engagements

Kelly Litvak was our speaker at our Texas Asian Republican Club monthly meeting on June 10, 2019, at the Tracy Gee Community Center. She is an outstanding speaker and her talk really captivated the audience. She was extremely well informed about a subject that few of us knew much about before hearing her talk. She has a true passion concerning the problem of young people in America being kidnapped into sex trafficking. The information that she conveyed to us should be released to everyone who has anything to do with the raising and care of children growing up in this day and age in America, especially parents and grandparents. I highly recommend Kelly to speak to your club or organization.

Dr. James Tang, President, Texas Asian Republican Club

In my professional career as a law enforcement officer serving as the Commander of the Human Trafficking Unit of the Houston Police Department, I cannot be prouder of the incredible work and dedication Kelly and Childproof America has accomplished in our fight against this heinous crime.

In my personal endeavors as a single father to a 17 year old son and a 12 year old daughter, her wisdom and experience has inspired parents from all over the state and country in the dangers of not "childproofing" and how you must be involved in everything you do as a parent during these times.

James B. Dale, Commander, Houston Police Department, Vice Division

I have told many military, educational and religious groups about the Childproof America presentation because not only the subject child sex trafficking needs be a top priority, but also because you have an extraordinary skillset to clearly present critical information to small and large groups alike. You offer parents the toolbox full of tools to protect our children. You have a balance of passion from your family's tragic experience and your can-do, pragmatic action steps to both prevent exploitation and recover the child if need be. Spread the word of Childproof America, pleased to give a recommendation anytime.

Joe Beatty, Board Member, 'The Price of Liberty'

As a parent, I was spellbound from the first of Kelly's presentation to the last when she shared her personal story. What really got me was the pictures of 8 or so people that looked so ordinary - a cheerleader, a mother, a green beret. When Kelly revealed that ALL of them turned out to be traffickers, I could not have been more stunned or amazed.

Also, most parents do not know the lingo that their children are seeing and using on social media. Kelly's presentation empowers parents with must-know information to keep kids safe! The Childproof America presentation should be seen by every parent, child (from age 10 up) and any person concerned about sex trafficking.

Kelly Litvak of Childproof America was a featured speaker at the National Association of Missing and Exploited Children 2019 Annual Conference in San Antonio, Texas on July 17th, 2019. The attendees included licensed Private Investigators, Elected Officials, Media, concerned Citizens, as well as Local, State and Federal Law Enforcement Officers. Mrs. Litvak captivated all members of the audience with her compelling, relevant and expertly formatted presentation. Her high energy delivery combined with her passion to save children, knowledge of human trafficking and purpose to make the world a safe place connected with each attendee. Carla Hunt, NAMEC Executive Director

Ms. Litvak has an outstanding grasp of the issue on human sex trafficking. Please put on your emotional seat belts. Any normal citizen, and you will learn about this too, should be shocked. If you are a parent, you will be shocked and overwhelmed. I still have goosebumps. If you think this can't happen to your straight "A", popular, strong Christian and well rounded child or grandchild. Think again, you would be wrong. If you have the opportunity to see her, take it. Learn. Take action. Time well invested. Bill Ely, Cypress Texas Tea Party
