Kelly, what a remarkable day! All of the work you put into the seminar paid off. It left every person there ready to go out and share what they learned. The survivors were such wonderful examples of the hope we can have for other victims. Each speaker helped us understand the different facets of this terrible evil. (Read more)

As a mom of a girl who has been trafficked, I am always on the lookout for resources and information. I was excited to hear about Childproof America's mission. Although I live in Dallas, I considered the trip a no-brainer for the opportunity to meet others who have been devastated by this evil. (Read more)

This was an amazing seminar you and your team put together to raise awareness of this horrific sin/crime running rampant not only in our nation, but sadly so prevalent in the city of Houston. (Read more)

What did our audience have to say??

I liked the direct language used by the speakers as they did not sugar coat or downplay the seriousness of this issue. To many it may have been shocking, but it needed to shock some people to get them to understand what is going on in our communities each and every day. This seminar did that. (Read more)

As a mother of a child who was almost taken through human trafficking, sitting through the seminar was very emotional. I only wish I had this information and wisdom I got from listening to Kelly and her speakers sooner so the nightmare that occurred in our home might never have happened. (Read more)

Thank you for holding this seminar and making it affordable. It really opened my eyes to the facts of this awful topic and I've since been able to share info I learned from this event. I have more awareness and knowledge and for that, I am grateful.
