

PRESBY-NOTES

May 2017

First Presbyterian Church
321 North 5th Street
Beatrice, NE 68310
Interim Pastor John Duling

It is the mission of First Presbyterian Church of Beatrice to know Christ, to make Christ known, and to exhibit Christ's love through worship, education and service.

My Dear Friends in the Risen Lord Jesus Christ!

I love the Easter Season! It is reviving with new life, spring coming to life after winter's dormancy, and beginning the planting season. I would like to see this all year long and not just a seasonal thing! How? I would challenge all of us to spend every day doing something called, "Eastering!"

The story of Thomas in John 20:24-30 is a good way to explain what I mean. Thomas was not with the disciples the night of the first Easter of Jesus' resurrection. He missed the excitement of seeing the Risen Lord! He would not believe that Jesus has risen. The only way to believe was for Thomas to put his hands on the nail prints of the Lord's hands or on the sword wound of Jesus' side.

Amazingly, Jesus appeared to the disciples a week later. This time, Thomas was with the disciples. Jesus immediately went to Thomas and placed his hands on the nail prints and the sword wound on Jesus' side. Jesus challenged Thomas, "Don't be unbelieving, but believe!" Thomas was so overcome seeing the Risen Lord that he fell to his knees and cried out a very personal confession, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus blessed Thomas for believing, but He also challenged one saying, "Even better blessings are in store for those who believe without seeing." (John 20:29b The Message Bible)

The gospel writer then added these words, "Jesus provided far more God-revealing signs that are written down in this book. These are written down so you will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and in the act of believing, have real and eternal life in the way He personally revealed it." (John 20:30-31, The Message Bible).

"Eastering," is the practice of believing and acting on that belief every day of one's life. Every day becomes Easter! One of my favorite Easter praise hymns says, "Every morning is Easter morning from now on!" In the same way, why not be an "Eastering People" who celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ from this day forward?

We put this faith into practice believing what we have affirmed in worship concerning our Vision Statement. Now, the Session is writing a Mission Study that is based on this Vision Statement of the church. It is how we put flesh and reality to the vision. The Session is prayerfully taking the results of our town hall gathering and putting them into this mission study or profile of what this church believes. It will be the attraction of what a prospective pastoral candidate for this congregation will see. It will be visually accessed through the church's website and Facebook page.

The question then becomes, "Will that prospective pastoral candidate see this congregation doing what we say we believe?" I pray so, if we really believe we are "Eastering People!" Are you an Eastering man, woman, child, or teen? Try being that Eastering person in whatever you do and believe and see if it fits. I pray that you will find yourself experiencing Easter more than just one Sunday a year!

A fellow Eastering person,

Pastor John Duling

Vision Statement
First Presbyterian Church
Beatrice, Nebraska

To Know Christ.

Experience Joy through study, prayer, and the Holy Spirit. Joy comes from within. It is not the result of our circumstances or the situations we find ourselves in, but in the fruit of our relationship with Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit. There is Joy being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose. This Church's life and mission are a joyful participation in Christ Jesus' ongoing life and work. Fueled by the Holy Spirit, we enthusiastically seek to learn God's perfect will and find direction for our congregation and ourselves. (Galatians 5;22; Philippians 2:2; Romans 5;5, 12:2, 15:13, F-1.0202 Book of Order)

To Make Christ Known.

Find Hope through worship and song as we spread God's glory. God has given us faith, hope, and love. Hope is a strong and confident expectation. Hope revolves around the future. Our hope is based upon the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus, and upon trust and faith in God. Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. We live in hope for what God has promised to us. Hope for eternal life in heaven is the foundation of what we believe. Without hope we are wondering aimlessly. God knows that people need the assurance that there is more to life than just living and dying. God promises He is in control. "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord. "plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (Jeremiah 29:11) We faithfully offer joyful praise to God, as we worship and sing together. (1 Cor.13:13; Hebrews 11:1; Titus 1;2; Romans 8:24-25; 2 Cor. 4:18)

To Exhibit Christ's Love.

Share love through outreach and caring. God's redeeming and enduring love is almighty and profound. We love because God first loved us. His love washes over us and soaks into us. By sharing His love with our church, community, nation, and world, we grow spiritually, and help others grow spiritually. Love brings us joy through trusting others and forgiveness for us. Love can heal what hurt has divided. With His love, we can be unafraid, comforted, and secure. Without His love we are bankrupt. We each have unique gifts to share that honor our Lord. We are a caring family in a world that needs care. (1 John 4:19; Titus 3:5-6; John 3;16)

Romans 5: 1-5 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace of God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that we rejoice, in our sufferings, since knowing that suffering produces endurance, endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

This is a Journey of Joy, Hope & Love!

Come feel Christ's presence!

Come celebrate Christ's victory!

Come put Christ's love into action!
