Our Mission:

To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world

Our Vision:

Where we share the love of Christ through Fellowship, Inclusion, Community Service and Worship

A Note from Pastor Susan

Hello Dear Ones,

How, in the world, are you? I hope this finds you sharpening pencils! Sharpening pencils, buying school clothes, downloading programs for study, class projects, online groups, etc. That's what the kids are doing... but how about you? My "school" days are over, in the classic sense, but I hope I NEVER stop learning. Life is really a series of lessons from beginning to end. My goddaughters are always trying to teach me what is currently "cool". I'm not sure I understand it all, but hope springs eternal! My job requires continuing education, even though I am 28 years in! Though, with the ever changing world we live in, I probably NEED continuing education in every area!

The biggest lessons I learn are not always about grammar or spelling, math, or science. Most of my lessons now are about how I treat people. How I walk with people in their lives and cultivate relationships in my own. How I navigate stress. How I keep myself healthy. Lots of lessons.

In our faith, the lessons continue as well. How is my relationship with Jesus? How am I serving Christ with my time, my talents, and my treasure? How am I being faithful to God's call to Prayer, continued bible reading AND study? How am I growing and learning every day to be the best child of God I can be?

Come to my office. I have books about almost every subject under the sun! But there is only one book that helps with life lessons... and it is the Bible. God's plan for me. For you. For everyone. So, from one student to another: How are you growing in faith? In grace? In obedience to God? Are you closer to God today than you were yesterday? Or, was there a time long before now when you felt more connected, less anxious, more on fire for God and less distracted by the world? If your yesterday was better than your today with Jesus? That should tell you something. It's time to go back to school!

Don't wait. It's back to school time. Get back to study of God's Word and daily prayer and worship with the One who has all you need to know. Learn and grow, friends. It's not just for kids! His... and Yours,
Pastor Susan

Get Ready, Get Set...

The fall will be here before you know it and so is the new youth group here at La Plata Church! We are finalizing meeting times and what we wish to call ourselves. Activities are being lined up and we want to make sure we leave nothing and no one behind. If you know of a youth (12-17) that likes fun, fellowship, working for the good of others and learning more about God, then look no further.

La Plata's new youth group is the place to be!

Whether or not you have a youth in your sphere of influence, we could use YOUR help. If you are willing to offer your gifts (from encouragement to planning, to being a chaperone for overnight excursions) our youth need YOU. It might cost you some time, but I can't think of any better way to spend it than helping our young people build a relationship with Christ. Can we count on ya? Let the church office or Pastor Susan know....

THANKS!

Help Us Update our Prayer List

Please take a look at our prayer list. If you have updated information on any of the folks listed, please let the office or Pastor Susan know.

SAVE THE DATE! Financial Peace University: Classes Start 9.19.24

Did you know that 89% of the people in a typical American congregation don't have a financial safety net? Shocked? But there's HOPE! And that hope is Financial Peace University. FPU is a nine-lesson course taught by Dave Ramsey and his team of financial experts. With FPU, you will master how to handle money using biblical wisdom and common sense. Through life-changing videos, online tools and resources, and group accountability, you will learn how to create and stay within a budget, save for emergencies, pay off debt, retirement, insurance, and investments. Just imagine the impact we could have on the community if we were all debt-free! Marriages and families would be strengthened. People would be freed up to be outrageously generous. This kind of hope will ignite change in our entire community!

FINANCIAL Peace
UNIVERSITY

What could the people of God do for the kingdom of God
if they were debt-free?

They staff of the pantry has asked for donations of the following items: deodorant, bar soap, tooth brushes (individually wrapped please), toothpaste, feminine hygiene products and wipes. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to Charlotte Bowie, Pat Pritchard, Jean Stoddard, Susan Yates or the Church Office.

Join Carl's Crew In the Walk to End Alzheimer's

In July 2021, Carl Greene got lost on his way home from a local Chinese restaurant. He was missing for two hours. This day hinted to his future. 2025 Budget Planning Process Begins

It's time to start planning the 2025 church budget and we need your help! Our budget is the financial roadmap that reflects our current and future priorities. As our vision statement says, we hope to share our love of Christ through inclusion, community service, worship, and fellowship. In this spirit, we also appropriately fund our ministries, programs, and community outreach activities.

Church leaders, please carefully review your financial needs for 2025. Review the balance of any restricted funds and historical spending trends in your program area to prayerfully determine financial needs for 2025. Send your budget needs or requests to the Finance Committee by September 1.

You may email Kathryn Greene, Finance Committee Chairperson, and Laurie Smith, Treasurer, at greene.kc10@gmail.com and lrsmith987@gmail.com. The Finance Committee will meet on September 10 to create the 2025 budget proposal. This proposed budget will be reviewed by Pastor Susan and presented at the subsequent Administrative Council Meeting for approval.

We need everyone's help to develop a healthy and accurate budget and join God in what He is doing through our church! Thank you in advance for your thoughtful consideration.

Leaves of the Vine

Observations from the Grapevine

 Zucchini Cartels

Relax, I'm not with the FBI, the Justice Department, or Homeland Security, nor am I even a Safeway nightwatchman. But I do have a public service warning to share with you. There have been corroborated reports of individuals leaving deposits on the doorsteps of unsuspecting neighbors. They have been spotted late at night and are thought to be members of the dreaded "Zucchini Cartel".

According to the amazing internet: Although zucchini has its origin in Mesoamerica (the part of North America extending from central Mexico through Belize, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, and northern Costa Rica), It appears that the zucchini, as we know it, was developed in Italy around the latter half of the 1800s and thought to be reintroduced to the United States by Italian immigrants in the 1920s. I have no supporting evidence, but I believe that the infamous Corleone (Godfather) family was first responsible for the illicit distribution of this prolific fruit (yes, it's technically a fruit).

The cartoon above is from "Pickles" by Brian Crane. The seniors Earl and Opal are seen distributing their bounty to unsuspecting neighbors. Where does it all come from? Apparently it's so easy to grow that even a black thumb like me could do it. I'm told that one zucchini plant can produce between three and ten pounds of produce. That's a lot of bread.

As much as I appreciate the generosity of those with excess bounty, I am not a huge enthusiast. Still, I want to reciprocate if a neighbor shares their zucchini with me, I usually leave a fruitcake in their mailbox the next day.

Of course, in the end, it's not about the zucchini or even the fruitcake. It's all about our willingness to share what we are fortunate enough to possess with others who may have needs. 2 Corinthians 9:6 explains: ...whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

Give a man a fish, he eats for a day.
Teach a man to garden and the whole neighborhood gets zucchini.

We have wonderful friends who are blessed with the skills to grow and harvest delicious fruits and vegetables and willingly and happily share that bounty. And so, to all my zucchini-growing acquaintances, keep doing what you're doing and I'll keep making bread (actually Pat will do the making part). But don't feel you need to make your deliveries in the dead of night. We'll leave a light on for you.

Online Giving Just Got Easier!

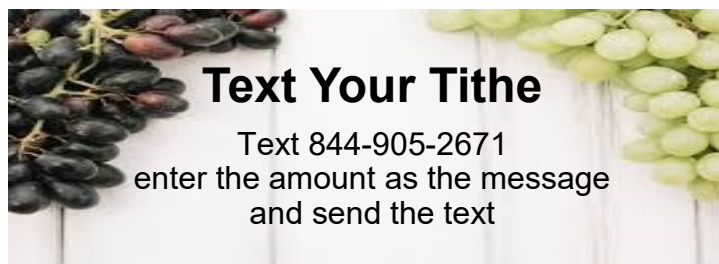

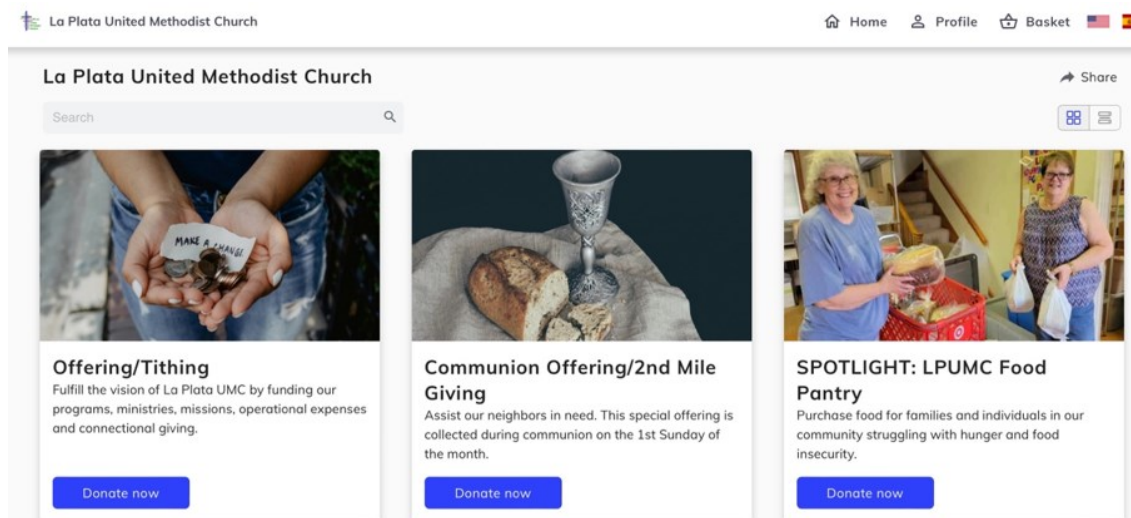

We've streamlined our online giving page so it is easier to find what you're looking for. Our donation page is not just a tool for giving. It showcases our teams that are engaged as God's hands and feet in the world and narrates the good work that we are doing in our community and the world.

Our page features unique "tiles" for our LPUMC programs and ministries, our missions, global ministries, and our partners. The tiles are categorized by LPUMC programs and ministries, missions, global ministries, special needs, and LifeStyles of Maryland support. Each tile gives a short and long description about what your donation is supporting. Our page also spotlights any local ministries that need special financial support so that you can direct your funds to the needs of the church. You can also easily find global ministry special Sunday giving opportunities. And you can change to an express view if you prefer a drop-down list to the tiles.

Don't see what you are looking for? We have hidden or archived tiles that are seasonal or inactive to de-clutter our page. We will review our page monthly and make appropriate updates to display or hide tiles. This flexibility helps us focus on seasonal activities. For example, in June, Vacation Bible School tiles will appear and, in November, Giving Tuesday and Turkey Basket tiles will display.

Online giving has many benefits. You have many donation options such as major debit and credit cards, bank transfers, or ACH. We appreciate your help covering the processing fees for these transactions (2.75% for card transactions; 1% for bank transactions). You can set up recurring giving or give one-time on a date of your choice. You can even share a link with your friends and family.

Take a peek at our streamlined page on <https://secure.myvanco.com/YQE6/home>. If you have a program that needs funding, please contact the Finance Committee through the church office.
