

Come join Amy Steward & Wendy Cadell on Wednesday evenings, 1/29 through 2/26 from 6:30-7:45 p.m. in the chapel as we discuss this transformative book together. Books can be picked up in the office, the cost is $10.00 each.

What started as two friends meeting for an hour each week over chai lattes to hold each other accountable in our faith walk, turned into surprisingly rich & enlightening discussions about the book, "Questions God Asks Us" by Trevor Hudson. Hudson invites us to have a conversation with God based on questions God asks us from five Old Testament stories & five New Testament stories. Each Bible story comes alive in a new way by considering the questions that God asks us. This approach enables us to have a conversation with God & to look at our own lives in a new context, based on the questions he asks us.
