

Course Title: Overview of Dyslexia and co-occurring Specific Learning Difficulties

Overview:

The course will focus on a broad understanding of Dyslexia and other Specific Learning Difficulties and the impact of these learning differences and simple strategies that will be effective in the classroom will be presented.

Course Outline

- ⇒ Understanding the profile of a learner with a specific difficulty
- ⇒ Current working definitions of a range of commonly occurring learning differences
- ⇒ Noticing and adjusting
- ⇒ The impact of learning differences
- ⇒ Effective intervention

Who is it for

This introductory course is suitable for those working in primary education or with younger learners, and who want to learn about dyslexia and what is available to support dyslexic learners in the classroom. Schools wishing to set up a SEN department, Teachers and teaching assistants are likely to find this course helpful.

Learning Outcomes

Teachers, Teaching Assistants and School management will extend and develop their knowledge and understanding of a range of co-occurring specific learning differences.

They will use the information shared on the course to make adjustments in the way they approach their professional roles.

Details

| | |
|------------------|-------------------------------|
| Duration | 3.5 hours |
| Mode of Delivery | Face-to-face training session |
| Date | |
| Venue | Kratu Premises/Client place |
| Fee | Rs. 5,000 per participant |

CONTACT