SPAGHETTI DINNER & SILENT AUCTION

Thank you to all who joined us for the Spaghetti Dinner & Silent Auction. MANY thanks to those who helped in making the evening a big success, over 400 people served!!! See you next year!

REFORMATION DAY

Was it a coincidence that Martin Luther posted the 95 Theses on October 31? Reformation scholars say absolutely not. It is believed that Martin Luther posted the 95 Theses on October 31 so they would be seen by the many well educated people who would be going to service on November 1st, All Saints Day. Church relics would be on public display only on special occasions. All Saints Day was one of those occasions.

TEACHER UPDATE

Mrs. Hillman will retire at the end of this school year. Mrs. VanMeeteren intended not to return this year, but she came back for one more year. The Board of Christina Education of St. Peter's Lutheran Church spoke with potential Kindergarten and Seventh grade teachers to fill these positions this week. The congregation of St. Peter's is scheduled to meet on November 7 to determine which, if any, of those candidates will be offered either position. I will keep you updated on this process. Please keep everyone involved in the decision process in your prayers.

ACCREDITATION UPDATE

The self-study part of the accreditation process is nearing the end. Our goal is to have the Self Study completed by the Christmas Break. The Validation Team, who makes an on-site visit, is being formed. The visit is scheduled for February 23-25, 2020. The Validation Team will have recommendations on how St. Peter's Lutheran School can get even better. Those recommendations become the bases for the School Action plan - also known as the School Improvement Plan.

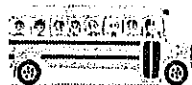

The results of the accreditation process will be shared once they are available. Please keep this ongoing process in your prayers.
