Cherub Choir: Kindergarten - 2nd Grade Children's Choir: 3rd - 5th Grade Jr. Choir: 6th - 8th Grade

Update Safety Grant: The intercom system is 90% installed. The blackout shades have arrived. The special Safety Deadbolt Locks will have the cores installed soon. The window film needs to be installed in warmer weather. The company has many schools to do across the State. We will receive an installation date once the weather warms up.

Band 6-8: A question was asked about promoting band in grades 6-8. For those who may not know, student may participate in the Reedsburg Public School Band, but families must work out the transportation of students back and forth to the public school. The current time slot was chosen to provide the least academic time lost at St. Peter's. Transportation may be one reason for the low participation. We are looking at possible ways to make the transportation easier for parents.

Question for parents in 5-8 grade - Would your child participate in band IF transportation were not an issue? Please let me know either way. Thank you.

Valentine Grams: Thank you for your support of the Student Council and the Valentine Grams. Every student in grades PK3-8 received at least one gram!

GO LADY TIGERS!!!

The St. Peters A-team girls' basketball team has been off to a very snowy start! Now six weeks into the season they have only been able to play 2 games so far due to cancellations. Those two games; however, did not disappoint fans one bit. The scrappy Lady Tigers battled with Sacred Heart all game to lose by two points in an inner-city duel and against a tall St. Mary's, Portage team they lost in a very exciting, back and forth game by only one point. The A-team this season is comprised of two 8th graders - Madeline Corbin and Abby Van Coulter, four 7th graders - Searra Stowers, Chloe Klitzke, Abby Alcantar, and Emma Herritz, and two 6th graders - Kylee Molitor and Brianna Van Coulter. Be sure to check out the remaining game schedule and come cheer on our Lady Tigers. You will most certainly be entertained by this great group of basketball players and their determination. Go Tigers!
