

Badgers are very aggressive creatures! Aside from being a danger to humans, they also dig holes in lawns and fields, posing a danger to animals and making an overall unappealing property. Badgers can also carry rabies, but are not one of the main carriers. If you have a badger near your home, they should be removed immediately. Badgers are a good solution to prairie dog control.