PRESTIGE DANCE COMPANIES

Apprentice – A dancer who attends rehearsals for the experience to develop stronger technique and enhance performance qualities. The choreographer has the ability to cast the dancer into the routine based on the progress of the dancer. Apprentices are welcome to dance in the Christmas parade (but not required) but must purchase a company jacket if dancing in the parade. Apprentices are also welcome to attend the company sleepover, Christmas party, and any dance conventions but not required.

Understudy - A dancer who attends rehearsals to learn a role in order to replace the regular performer when necessary due to excessive absences, illness, or injury.

Congratulations on making our 2017-2018
Prestige Dance Companies! We look forward to a great year with a positive and supportive environment!
