

2019 SUMMIT VIP GUEST SPEAKER

MARK MCDANIEL

President & CEO, Cinnaire

Mark was a one man show in 1993. Today, now known as Cinnaire, with Mark at its helm, the organization has committed over $3.5 billion of loans and equity for affordable housing and community development efforts. Mark has strategically diversified the organization to provide access to permanent debt financing, construction lending, technical assistance, predevelopment lending, youth leadership training, and title services. As a result, Cinnaire is recognized by the United States Treasury Department as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). Cinnaire is also recognized nationally as one of the top nonprofits in the country and has been named by The NonProfit Times as a Top 50 nonprofit to work for and Crain's Detroit Business as one of the Cool Places to Work for in Michigan.

Did he do it alone?
