“Charting the Course”

Learn the Latest at the FHEA 35th Spring Meeting

Join your FHEA colleagues in Fort Lauderdale at the iconic Pier 66 Hotel & Marina, Wednesday, May 15 – Friday, May 17, 2019, for the 35th Spring Meeting, sponsored by District IV, to learn about and discuss “Charting the Course” in the healthcare engineering field.

This meeting will feature speakers and topics who will address how experts respond to emergencies; power monitoring for hospitals; keys to streamlining emergency responsiveness and keys to achieving compliance – all especially important topics after experiencing several hurricanes in Florida in the last two years. The conference will end with a presentation on evaluating the security risks of the modern patient experience. Besides interactive discussions, you will have the opportunity to network with other healthcare engineering professionals and meet industry suppliers.

Why You Should Attend...

#1: Build Relationships

Connect and network with colleagues and exhibitors. Play in the FHEA Golf Tournament or join fellow anglers in the FHEA Fishing Tournament.

#2: Gain Ideas

Learn from experts in the healthcare engineering industry with multiple educational sessions that will help you Chart the Course in the future.

#3: Discover Products and Services

Find the best innovations, products, and services you need to work with among our exhibitors and sponsors.

#4: Be Inspired

Gather inspiration through fellowship with friends.

#5: Have Fun

There's no better destination to do all of the above in one place – at the 35th FHEA Spring Meeting at Pier 66 in Fort Lauderdale!

Hospital Sustainability Collaborative

The FHEA is joining the Florida Hospital Association (FHA) in launching the Hospital Sustainability Collaborative. Hospitals increasingly are looking for ways to improve efficiency and reduce overall costs while also improving the overall patient experience.

One often overlooked opportunity is sustainability. Making an active commitment to sustainability and aggressively pursuing goals provides multiple strategic benefits that can help healthcare facilities thrive.

The FHEA & FHA are committed to supporting members to launch or improve their sustainability programs. Learn more about this initiative by attending the FHEA Spring Meeting. The program will be offered on May 16 at 2:30 pm.

Other Information

Travel

The closest airport to the Pier 66 Hotel & Marina is Fort Lauderdale International Airport, located approximately 15 minutes away and serviced by all major airlines. There are several shuttle services as well as rental car companies located at the airport.

Self-parking at the hotel has been reduced to $20.00 per day for overnight guests. Valet parking is also available for additional fees.

Weather

Daytime temperatures are typically in the high 80s, while evening temperatures will be in the mid 70s.

Things To Do In and Around Fort Lauderdale

This area, featuring a full service marina, a complete aquatic center with many activities that you may choose, great shopping, and beautiful beaches, offers many sites and places to see. To learn more, visit <https://www.visitflorida.com/en-us/cities/fort-lauderdale.html>.

Dining

Pier 66 offers five unique dining experiences. Breakfast is served at Mariners; for afternoon snacks, make your way to the pool to Orchids; and at the end of the day, watch the sun set over the Intracoastal at Pelican Landing. For fine dining and fresh seafood, Grille 66 & Bar has got you covered, while The Lounge allows you to enjoy a meal overlooking the courtyard and pool. Room Service is also available.

More Options Nearby Include:

Lobster Bar Grille

450 E. Las Olas Blvd; 954-772-2675

Enjoy pristine seafood, live lobsters, and prime steaks in a fresh, upscale casual atmosphere. Filled with modern-contemporary nautical touches, the experience will leave you feeling like you have just dined on a luxury yacht. Beautiful tiled archways and custom lighting give the dining room a more intimate feel, while the lounge's vibrant U-shaped bar and channel-back seating welcomes guests to relax and dine with friends and colleagues. The fully covered patio with cushioned furniture is ideal for cocktails and light outdoor dining.

Café Vico

1125 N. Federal Highway; 954-565-9681

Dining at Cafe Vico, a premier Italian restaurant in Fort Lauderdale, is more than a delicious dinner, it's a lasting memory.

From the personal greeting at the door (if it's owner Marco Vico, ladies often get a kiss on the hand) to the final sip of rich espresso or bite of Italian dessert the attention is on you and making sure you have an evening to remember.

Other Dining Options

15th Street Fisheries

1900 S.E. 15th Street; 954-763-2777

This restaurant's location is by far the most nautical in South Florida. 15th Street Fisheries is located inside Fort Lauderdale's landmark Lauderdale Marina, built in 1948. You simply can't get any closer to the waterway or to the nautical history of the area. What better place than this to enjoy the freshest seafood and superior service all while taking in the ever-changing views of the Intracoastal Waterway?

Boatyard

1555 SE 17th Street; 954-525-7400

With its prime location in the epicenter of the Yachting Capital of the world, Boatyard is Fort Lauderdale's premier new waterfront dining destination. Conceptualized and brought to life by The Restaurant People (TRP) as part of a joint venture with Hudson Capital Group (HCG), the reinvented Boatyard offers an upscale, nautical-chic vibe in a sophisticated, laidback atmosphere that embraces the pulse of the city's yachting culture and where marina views abound.

Rocco's Tacos & Tequila Bar

1313 Las Olas Blvd.; 954-524-9550

Rocco's Tacos offers a true taste of Mexico within a fun casual environment. When you first step through the door you become part of the atmosphere, joining a diverse crowd enjoying flavors picked directly from Mexico. Experience guacamole prepared table side and sample from 425 varieties of tequila. Order a margarita with a sour mix you'll taste nowhere else – it's made right on the premises. Rocco's provided a diverse menu with a distinct attention to detail including corn tortillas made by hand and cooked fresh on the Comal in our kitchen, just as they are made in kitchens throughout our neighbors to the south.

Casablanca Café

3049 Alhambra Street; 954-764-3500

Known for its charming atmosphere, our trendy and popular eatery blends old and new to enhance the beauty of Fort Lauderdale's beach, as you savor the unique and impeccably prepared flavors of American and Mediterranean specialties. Our world class cuisine and romantic Mediterranean ambiance make it a favored and anticipated destination. Experience an intimate meal inside our inviting dining rooms or enjoy the soft breezes as you dine at a scenic ocean view table on the patio of this beautifully restored historic home.

The Concierge at the Pier 66 Marina & Hotel will also be able to help you with other recommendations.
