JUDY DAVIS 24

*Blessed be the name of the LORD,
1 Kings 1*

50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar (by "laying hold of the horns," the offender, thereby, placed himself under the protection of the Saving and Helping Grace of God, at least if it was agreed to by the authorities).

There are just those times that there is nothing that we can do but hold on to the horns of the altar of God and put ourselves in the grace of God.

Ps 37

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. (What a Promise!

God's Word is true. If our steps are "ordered by the Lord," we will never be forsaken, nor will we suffer want. Such will be until the Lord calls us home.)

In the covering of the grace of the one true God we find His all protecting hand and the power of deliverance. In God's grace we find the power to stand against the wails of the devil.

There is no shame in going to the horns of the altar with a true humble and contrite heart, the shame comes when one refuses to go to the altar. There is no true altering till there is altar time.

Altar time is that time when one is truly open with God and lays it all out to God that He might have His way in ones life to take that believer through to the other side of what ever life has to throw at the child of God.

Let God arise and His enemies will scatter.

Blessings from Sis Brenda e3 Bro. John.

The market place is empty
No more traffic in the streets
All the builders' tools are silent
No more time to harvest wheat
Busy housewives cease their labors
In the courtroom no debate
Work on earth is all suspended
As the King comes thru the gate
