We are PLANTING A CHURCH

Update Letter From Robert Fletcher Adair

✕ I'm Engaged ✕

"And her name is Roberta"

The Future

You are likely asking yourself what this means about my (and Roberta's) future. Our plan is to apply with Asian Access as a couple in the fall. Part of this process will be a trip to Japan for a few weeks to allow Roberta to experience Japanese culture and potential ministry placements. If this trip goes well, our plan is to begin serving a 4-year term in the summer of 2011. The first step of this process, though, is to get married. Please see the back of this page for more information.

On the first day of graduate student orientation I met a curly-haired girl for Pennsylvania who had recently returned from 3 years in Kosovo with the Christian Missionary Alliance. At the time I thought she was cute but also probably out of my league. The remainder of the fall semester we spent large amounts of time together in groups. She was funny, smart, and quirky. On top of that, her heart was to plant churches with indigenous Christians overseas. We began dating in early December and things progressed at a relatively quick pace. On May 15th I proposed and thankfully Roberta accepted. We are excited about a lifetime together serving Jesus overseas.

Prayer Requests お祈りください

Here are a few points to help guide you as you pray.

Pray for Roberta and me as we try to plan a wedding in two months.

Pray for opportunities to integrate Japan and Japanese language into my daily life in Wheaton.

Pray that I will continue to grow into my role as j-Teams coordinator.

Please pray that we would be able to clearly discern how God is leading us in the future.

 Reception to follow

Who's that???
 We met as new students of the Intercultural Studies program at Wheaton College in August. We quickly discovered that we have a lot more in common than just our amazing first names.

Getting to Know Each Other
 Over the past 6 months, we have enjoyed the process of getting to know each other. We also had opportunity over winter and spring breaks to meet each others' families.

The Proposal
 On May 15th, Robert did the unthinkable and sang for Roberta. In her surprise she almost didn't notice him proposing. After a rather long pause, she happily agreed to marry him.

Robert and Roberta ask you to
