BLURB

Addie comes from a long line of readers, or “story catchers,” as her family likes to call themselves. Every time Addie tries to catch a story on her own, though, the words play tricks on her. Addie tries everything she can think of to corral those wiggly letters, but it will take a little faith to become the next STORY CATCHER.

AUTHOR

BIO

Website   @donadays   Facebook   Pinterest   Goodreads

By day, Donna L. Martin is a Fourth Degree TaeKwonDo Black Belt; by night, she is a self-proclaimed “ninja author” of picture books, middle grade chapter books, and young adult novels. Somewhere amidst all this excitement, she also created the Free Author Promotion event that takes place every May during the Children’s Festival of Reading. Donna loves laughter, snuggling with her cat, and reading good books. To get a sneak peak of what it was like growing up among the swamps of southern Louisiana, check out Tales from the Bayou on her blog at www.DonnaLMartin.com.

Faith-Based Publisher Soon to Launch a Mighty Uplifting Anaiah Adventure

Anaiah Press, a digital-first publisher of faith-based books based out of St. Petersburg, Florida, will release The Story Catcher by debut author Donna L. Martin on January 20, 2015. Martin tutored children through the national, “Read to Me” program and witnessed their frustration with learning to read. The Story Catcher is an inspiring children’s picture book that instills motivation, strength, and encouragement into beginner readers of any age.

Donna L. Martin was born in Gueydan, Louisiana where she graduated from Gueydan High School and later attended Navarro Community College and Pellissippi State Community College. Martin lived in Dallas, Texas for quite some time before moving to her current residency in Knoxville, Tennessee with her cat. She is a 4th Degree TaeKwonDo Black Belt by day and a Ninja writer by night. Martin enjoys writing children books, and adding to her book collection. Martin gives back to the book world by producing an annual, “Free Author Promotion” event showcasing new and established authors and books.

Anaiah Press is a St. Petersburg-based, digital-first publishing house dedicated to presenting quality, faith-based fiction and nonfiction books to the public. More than twenty authors, besides Martin, have signed on with the new company, and their 2014 and 2015 lineup already promises a variety of genres for adults and children alike. Other titles releasing this winter include The Last Stored, a young adult novel by Sonia Poynter; Operation Tree Roper, a middle grade contemporary by Robert Polk; and Revenge, a contemporary romantic suspense by Paula Rose.
