

U.S. NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS TRAINING SHIP LONE STAR

Recommendation for

NLUS YOUTH RIBBON with Gold Boot Appurtenance

In the case of

AUSTIN F BENAVIDES

For service as set forth in the following citation:

“For superior performance of duty resulting in his selection as the Training Ship Lone Star 2016 NLCC Cadet of the Year. Petty Officer Benavides’ selection as the Cadet of the Year was a result of his outstanding performance, dedication and drive to serve the unit. Petty Officer Benavides’ has served with distinction during the year and has proven to be dependable and efficient in carrying out his duties. Petty Officer Benavides has been so dedicated to the Training Ship that he promoted twice during 2016 to reach 1st Class Petty Officer, the first for the unit since at least 2010. Benavides attended League Cadet Petty Officer Leadership Academy and led his unit during the USS Lexington/CVN training. He consistently wears his uniform with pride and gives well above that which is asked of him at all times. Petty Officer Benavides’ performance, initiative, and motivation are in all respects outstanding and was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Navy, United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps, Navy League Cadet Corps and Training Ship Lone Star.”

Approved by:

For the National President:

LCDR JAYNE BELL, NSCC
Commanding Officer
Training Ship Lone Star
U.S. Navy League Cadet Corps

MR. RICH DRISCOLL, NLUS
Council President
Fort Worth Council
Navy League of the United States