"Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!"

— LUKE 1:28

Faith is a gift from God. Take time in silence and thank Him for all the gifts He has given you. Try to set aside any anger or resentment you have and really open your heart to receive the gift of God's mercy and forgiveness. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others.

From the Pastor's Pen

EXTENDED FAMILY. In the first reading, David has a bright idea, to build the Lord a house. The prophet Nathan informs David that God has something else in mind. Instead of David building a house for the Lord, the Lord is going to establish a house for David.

There is a play on words. David is thinking of building a temple; God is planning a dynasty. We may wish to substitute 'family' for 'house'.

The promises made to this house will all come true in unexpected fashion. Our Gospel declares the preliminary culmination. God chooses a virgin betrothed to a man of the House of David. He chooses her to be His incomparable temple. God's Son, brought to Mary's womb by the Spirit, will make his home in her. Her entire existence, body-soul-spirit, will be used to development him into a complete man.

To confirm in Mary's heart that such will be the case, the angel Gabriel sends her to Elizabeth, her cousin already six months with child, "for nothing is impossible with God." In other words, God sends the girl to her extended family.

This is how God works. He starts with each of us as individuals, but works through each of us to touch our natural family, our parish family, our national family, our world family—just to name a few tiers of our 'extended family'.

As we listen to this ancient text and its fulfillment in the Gospel reading, we're reminded, as we stand on the threshold of Christmas, that God's Plan of Salvation is a family affair. God works with the family and through the network of families to accomplish this Plan.

We are never alone in our relationship with God. This is no private, privileged race of peoples or nations. God wishes to save us as a family. This means His Work is to shape us into a family, the House of God.

I said that the Gospel of the Annunciation is but a 'preliminary culmination' of God's Plan. Do you see why?

God's dealings with young King David to turn his idea of a house into something far more lasting became through Mary the beginning of the Church, the Family/House of God.

Whether inside or outside the Church, we still see a world torn apart. But beneath all those divisions, God is molding something glorious. This is our Christmas Hope. What Mary was, the Earth is meant to be: the dwelling place of God, the place of fulfillment, the sacred space where the Body of Christ comes to full stature. The connecting link between Mary & Earth is the Church.

To believe in Christmas, in the Incarnation, is to believe in our vocation to become Family, a single House. Emmanuel, God-with-us, has laid hold of our existence, body-soul-spirit, to develop the Church, so Christ, Head and members, can come to full maturity.

If Paul is in labor pains (Gal 4:19) and feels the groaning going on through all of creation (Rm 8:22), it's only right that we too labor to bring to birth the Plan of God. The 2nd Reading from St. Paul is a single 70-word sentence. It boils down to this: To God be the Glory! This is the song of the Angels in Bethlehem. It's our song too as we embrace one another as brother and sister at Christmas, dedicated to extending this Family to the ends of the Earth.

THE ADVENT WREATH'S circular shape symbolizes eternity. Its candles say in words of light that we're in a period of waiting and of darkness. The 4th candle of Advent is the Candle of Love. Standing at the door with Mary and Gabriel, we are at a liturgy, gathered into one Body to encounter the real presence of Christ in our midst. Like Mary, we are called to say "yes" to this moment and offer ourselves to await his arrival.

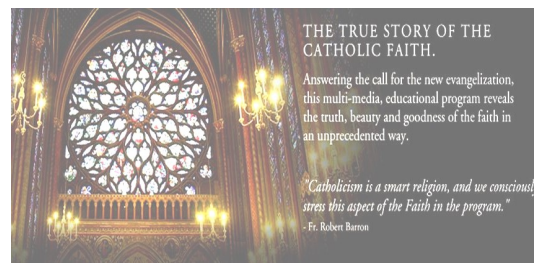

Prayer for lighting the fourth candle.

Father, all-powerful God, your eternal Word took flesh on our earth when the Virgin Mary placed her life at the service of your plan. Lift our minds in watchful hope to hear the voice which announces his glory and open our minds to receive the Spirit who prepares us for his coming. We ask this through Christ our Lord. ~AMEN.
