Stewardship Moment: "The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of god and joint heirs with Christ..." - Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasures to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

May 26-27, Most Holy Trinity

From the Pastor's Pen

A HISTORY OF LOVE. The Trinity is like gravity in a way. We can attempt to defy it but we end up falling and getting hurt. We do get up, learn lessons, and improve our way of life. Every new mode of travel is not a case against gravity, but new ways of working with a system that simply is. Every new sport is just another exercise in finding the law of gravity relevant and fun to work with.

This Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity both escapes our minds and inhabits our hearts. It is simultaneously beyond and imbedded in our very being.

Originally God was encountered as the Father of peoples and Creator of the world. The Prophets distinguished Israel's Lord from the gods of the neighboring nations. "I am the first and I am the last; there is no God but me" (Is 44:6).

In the New Testament period occurred an unexpected event: the coming of a man who claimed to be the Son of God. Jesus Christ, a living paradox, is, on the one hand, the Son who spoke to God as an Other, addressing Him as Father. On the other hand he is "Emmanuel" (God-with-us), God visiting His people.

There quickly followed a third experience, the presence of God in the disciples. "I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you always.... On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you in me and I in you" (Jn 14:16, 20). This began on Pentecost.

Such is how Christians began to deal with God as One in Three. Such dealings were at the root of the Church's eventual Creeds. The Nicene Creed that we profess every Sunday is made up of texts drafted at the Ecumenical Councils of Nicea (A.D. 325) and Constantinople (A.D. 381). The form of this Creed, you'll notice, is Trinitarian.

We have come to know God's identity, like our own, over the course of time. Because God is Love, the history of coming to know Him is identical with the history of Love. His Love, we believe, triumphs.

We work together as parish families in search of new ways of mirroring the wonders of what it means to live in the image of God, Triune and True. All it takes is being open to old and new ways of loving one another.

MEMORIAL DAY. February 3, 1943, 4 U.S. Army Chaplains gave up their life jackets and prayed together when their transport ship was torpedoed south of Greenland.

Bottineau is honored to have the Chaplain's courage on display at the Four Chaplain's Memorial. Already this year I've chatted with 2 different out of town visitors photographing the monument Msgr Andrieux erected in 1956. One was a family from Alberta, Canada on their way to New Orleans!

As usual, Bottineau's Memorial Day Parade begins at this site as our local community honors the men and women who have died while serving in the military.

"The custom of honoring ancestors by cleaning cemeteries and decorating graves is an ancient and worldwide tradition, but the specific origin of Memorial Day, or Decoration Day as it was first known, are unclear.

"In early rural America, this duty was usually performed in late summer and was an occasion for family reunions and picnics. After the Civil War, America's need for a secular, patriotic ceremony to honor its military dead became prominent, as monuments to fallen soldiers were erected and dedicated, and ceremonies centering on the decoration of soldiers' graves were held in towns and cities throughout the nation.

"After World War I, the day expanded to honor those who have died in all American wars.

"No less than 25 places have been named in connection with the origin of Memorial Day, and states observed the holiday on different dates. In 1971, Memorial Day became a national holiday by an act of Congress" (The Farmer's Almanac, 2018).

Planning for the Future. On May 16th, Jerry Migler led a group at St. Mark's to work through 47 ideas/suggestions generated by the Climate Survey and last year's Steering Committee. We put the ideas in 3 separate categories then prioritized them. If you would like to see what we did, check out the south-west corner of the Social Hall. It was a lively discussion and fun working through all the ideas. If you have any questions, call the office - 228-3164. Next meeting, May 30, 6:30p.m. All are welcome. Come voice your opinions.
