We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of those around us. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ". We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

From the Pastor's Pen

WELCOME HOME! In 1841, Charles Coughlin was born on Prince Edward Island. He became an internationally acclaimed Shakespearean actor, kicking off his career in London at age 19, although St. Ed Island always remained home in his heart. There he'd come and rest during his vast travels.

At age 38, while appearing in Galveston, TX, he fell sick, died, and there was buried. This year, 1900, the greatest natural disaster of our Nation's history struck that city when a hurricane devastated the Gulf Coast, claiming some 8,000 victims. The flood surge shattered cemetery vaults and mingled the bodies of the long dead with the freshly dead.

After the hurricane subsided, a huge backwash carried many coffins into the Gulf of Mexico, among them that of C. Coughlin. Weeks later, the West Indian Gulf Stream whisked it around the tip of Florida where the pace of its northern flow picks up and can travel some 70 miles a day.

Perhaps a gale blew the coffin out of this current, God only knows. But after years adrift at sea, at the mercy of winds and waves, encrusted with mollusks and barnacles, some fisherman in October of 1908, towed the bobbing spectacle to the beach.

Beneath the thick crust of shells, they uncovered a silver plate with the name Charles Coughlin. It was a name the sailors knew well, their hometown hero. Charles' coffin had made it down the St. Lawrence Seaway to the shores of Prince Edward Island only a few miles away from where the actor was raised.

Simon and Garfunkel sing the popular tune:

*I'm sittin' in the railway station / Got a ticket for my destination
On a tour of one night stands / My suitcase and guitar in hand
And every stop is neatly planned / For a poet and a one man band
Homeward bound / I wish I was / Homeward bound
Home, where my thoughts are 'scaping
Home, where my music's playing
Home, where my love lies waiting
Silently for me*

Our longing for home is a powerful force, one we rarely stop to measure or register. Capitalizing on our love of home, our First Reading reminds us that God did not make death. We're made to live—not just in this world, but live forever in Heaven, our Eternal Home.

The Gospel gives us a glimpse of that Eternal Life as a power that comes from the person of Jesus. From the tassel of his cloak a powerful jolt of healing reinvigorates a long-suffering woman. At his word, a little girl, thought dead, arises to life.

I write this from a Burger King overlooking the Missouri River in Mobridge, SD. I'm on the frontside of my adventure in the Black Hills. Looking forward to it, and to my return home.

Home is where the heart is, so they say. Yet, the real shore towards which we drift, the place where our Love lies waiting, is the Father's House. Jesus has the power to set our hearts Homeward bound.

From the Catholic Rural Life Prayer Book: A Prayer For Gardens and Orchards

Almighty and most merciful God, before our first parents, Adam and Eve, Sinned, they lived and were very happy in the Garden of Eden. There, as we read in the Holy Book, You would walk with them "at the afternoon air," and they heard the sound of You in the garden.

Later, Your own Son, Lord Jesus Christ, began His fearful passion with His sweat of blood in the Garden of Gethsemane. Dear God, ever since then, a garden is a holy thing. You still walk there with people, at the afternoon air. You walk with people who can see You and Your generous and merciful Providence working for them in the green things that grow and the trees that blossom and bear such rich and nourishing fruit: people who can see again the cross of Christ in every tree, and His crown of thorns in every thorn.

Bless all our gardens and orchards in this broad land of ours, dear God, and give us a rich and plentiful harvest. Help us, as we go about our work here, to see You in Your loving kindness, working for us and with us.

CATHOLIC RURAL LIFE
Applying the teachings of Jesus Christ for the betterment of rural America

Help us to do Your will at all times. Then, some day, we will walk with You and Your Son, and our dear Mother Mary, down the paths of another Garden, far better, far more beautiful than even the Garden of Eden. Amen.

Tom and Bobbie Henry are having a farm mass Thursday, July 5th.

Mass at 5pm followed by potluck supper. Sloppy Joes and picnic supplies will be provided, come as you are and bring your favorite picnic dish if you'd like! We are located 2 1/2 miles off highway 5 on the east side of the paved Newburg road. Everyone is invited (Both churches)!!!

ONGOING UPKEEP – a new thermostat is going in the social hall, the donated sprinkler system is installed, but not yet functioning; the inner garden got a major cleanup and is in the process of getting an overhaul. Research is being done on some wrought iron railings for the front steps.

Some new doors have been ordered for the rectory from Bottineau Lumber. If there is a volunteer interested in installing them, please contact the church office.

AT ST. ANDREW'S: Next steps include: pouring a pad for the grotto for the Mary statue, putting in a Rosary walkway around the shrine area, hauling in some top soil, laying a weed barrier, bringing in some rock and fresh plants, building the grotto, and returning the statues to their renovated home for decades to come.

Hey crafters and artists! We are looking for scrapbook paper, cardstock, old and new greeting cards of any kind, card envelopes, (and/or postage stamps -if you want) for Social Concerns card sending ministry. Any of these items can be dropped off at the Parish office. If anyone would like to be part of a group to make cards to be sent out, call the office at 228-3164. Thank you!

HOST HOMES NEEDED FOR NET RETREAT TEAM ON OCTOBER 26-28. There will be 6 men and 6 women on the team. They can double up in the beds. An evening snack will need to be provided on October 26 when they arrive. They will also need breakfast before they leave on Sunday. The other meals will be provided at the Social hall during the retreat. Please call Patty Graber at 871-0394 or the Parish office at 228-3164. WE NEED TO KNOW BEFORE JULY 25 SO THAT WE CAN GET THE PAPERWORK IN TO THE NET TEAM.

The Blessing of the Boats

Father Michael will be blessing boats on Lake Metigoshe before the fireworks display on July 3rd at 9 pm. It will take place at the bridge between North & South Lake. If our boaters have a better suggestion for the location of the blessing, let us know soon so we can plan accordingly.
