

Many well-funded groups in California want to reduce our retirement benefits. As an example they would like to eliminate the annual cost of living benefit (COLA), in addition to other aspects of our earned benefits.

Protect yourself by joining the Retiree Support Group of Contra Costa County. Your voice and membership dues will serve to increase our "war chest" in anticipation of the costs required to defend against legal attacks on our retirement benefits.