

Well, at this time I believe all Bible prophecy that needed to be fulfilled before the return of the Lord has already been fulfilled with exception of James 5:1-8 and that appears to be happening right now, no waiting! Germany is the only country in Europe that's financially afloat, but they can't possibly support the rest of Europe. Greece is already gone and Spain is falling even as we speak. The Euro is about to go and if it does, our dollar will go with it.

Natural disasters are increasing, too, and we are approaching a solar maximum, with flares that could fry every electronic device on the planet, unexplained fish kills, whole flocks birds falling out of the sky for no reason, earthquakes in divers places and that's just the tip of the iceberg, but as a result, I expect the Lord could return almost any time.

However, I also recognize that "the fullness of the Gentiles" must come in first. In central Africa now, whole Mosques full of Muslims are coming to the Lord, imams included. In the Islamic states of the Middle East, the Lord is revealing Himself to some through dreams and visions and they too are turning to the Lord; people who would never hear the Gospel otherwise.

I know some people expect a great revival in the church before the Lord returns, but that is exactly the opposite to what Scripture predicts . . . 2Th 2:3, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first . . ."

So scripturally, not a revival, but a great apostasy comes before the return of the Lord and what do we see in this country today, no waiting?
