About the Orlando Sentinel Family Fund, a McCormick Foundation

Established in 1990, through the Orlando Sentinel Family Fund, a McCormick Foundation Fund, local nonprofits with child and youth education programs, child abuse prevention and treatment programs, hunger and housing for at-risk children, families and senior citizens are supported. Grants are made possible with the generosity of Orlando Sentinel readers, the general public and corporate donations. All donations are matched 50 cents on the dollar by the Robert R. McCormick Foundation, based in Chicago, Illinois. The Orlando Sentinel and the McCormick foundation pay all expenses, ensuring 100 percent of donation, plus the match, goes directly to local, nonprofit organizations making an impact. Since inception, more than $36 million has been distributed to improve the lives of at-risk children adults and families in Central Florida.
