

Hey INK-A-Holics!!!

It's do or Die for all but two teams

WWFFL INK© Week 14 EDITION

UGBFKM:

- The Falcons came back to win a game in which Matty Ice throws 3 int's in 5 pass attempts. That's just crazy and you have to question how good the Saints really are? Love the fact Drew Brees said injuries on Thursday are a direct result of Thursday night games. Maybe we can finally do away with these stupid games. Don't get me wrong I love the fact of an extra game to watch, but you give these guys no time to rest after play on Sunday. But that Falcon win really hurts the Packers and the biggest question is do you "rush" A Rodg back in week 15 if the playoff chances are really slim.
- So I was thinking as I was pissing, a putrid asparagus piss in case you're wondering as we had asparagus in the pasta bar, about how many people work in my building. It's 30 floors in downtown Milwaukee. At any given time is someone in the building either pissing or shitting I asked my own self? Every time I'm in there, which is a lot because I drink a lot of coffee and water, I hear a toilet flushing from above. Just think about the huge condo and apartment complexes and all the piss and shit and who knows what else being flushed down the toilet and when you think about where all that goes, besides Lake Michigan of course. Then I start thinking why the fuck don't we haven't we turned this shit into some type of fuel. Same goes for farm animal waste. Who remembers Mad Max? Anyway, I just thought it was a perfect UGB to think about in a building this size is there always at least one person taking care of their business every second of the day.
- What is up with the wind?
- New England and Minnesota have won 8 games in a row and Pittsburgh has won 7. Which team loses first? My money is on Minnesota. Granted much of that is because I want to see them crash and burn and while I would like them to lose ASAP in the playoffs it would be fun to have them lose at home in the NFC Championship game right when they are at the precipice to play the Super Bowl at home. I just figure at some point Case Keenum wakes up and realizes he's Case Keenum and not a true MVP candidate despite ESPN's thinking he is. Although having Thielen in another league for fantasy purposes I'd rather he awaken in week 17 and the playoffs. And even though the Vikings have the potential to play the first "home game" in Super Bowl history is it really a home game because while you will play in your own stadium your fans will not be there. Sure, it's a home game. I get it and I'm not supposed to type Super Bowl but fuck the NFL and that dumb ass Roger Goodell and his 200 million. I guaranfuckingtee you if it wasn't for fantasy football being so damn popular the NFL would be taking huge hits like the other sports that while they do have fantasy it is clearly not as popular as the NFL. I do think the NFL gets it.

- I'm going to run something by you and want to know if you understand the correlation I am trying to make. We all put the money from the waiver wire, or transactions, into the trip kitty which is then used to buy food for the house. Some of us put in way more than others yet this is distributed evenly. Granted some of us may eat more than others but it's still one big pot of money that we all benefit from equally. It is ironic to me so many of you are so against anything socialist (except probably medicare & social security) yet when you think about it realistically the transaction kitty is undeniably socialist. You can argue we don't need to pick up players and donate that dollar but sometimes you have to due to injuries etc... So just for shits and giggles should we limit the amount of community food someone can eat based on their transaction donations for that year? Just for comparison Rob has donated $2 to the trip food fund this year, should we limit him to one piece of French toast, one piece of bacon, and a 1/4 cup of syrup all three mornings because he could only give $2? Just asking the question because it seems that many of you think this way in other benefits other than the trip food fund. You'll see more of this below but thanks to Kid, and me, for being the only two who have donated over $300 since the WWFFL was born. Trust me it'll be two years before anyone else breaks that threshold and by that time we'll be over $400. You're welcome for giving Todd and crew all that money to shop for all of us every year. 😊
- Weeks 12 and 13 have seen the highest scoring teams win and as such the lowest scoring teams lose. Basically that tells you that no one is lucking into wins or getting unlucky with losses when it matters the most. However, I am certain it won't happen 3 weeks in a row.
- Playoffs? Playoffs? Don't talk about PLAYOFFS? You kidding me? PLAYoffs? I;m just hoping we can win a game, another game. And you're sitting here talking about PLAYOFFS? PLAYOFFS?
- It's been a really tough week. A really good guy, newer guy learning the ropes and struggling by himself in another office (in MKE we have a three person team), was just fired today and it just sucks. It's Thursday and I'm way behind on the INK, what else is new right? But it's tough because no one wants to lose a job this time of year and I feel for the guy. He tried but his boss didn't do what was needed to help him succeed and let him FLOUNDER in CHI while he did nothing but complain in MKE instead of fucking getting off his ass and going down there. But when you're selfish you don't think of that but yet worry about how it makes you look while you spend 6 hours a day browsing the internet and the other 2 watching bowling videos. I've offered countless times to travel to CHI to show him the ropes but of course the BIG Selfish wouldn't have that because he'd have to work because I'm not around to do all the work.
- Saints RB's Ingram and Kamara are ranked 3rd and 4th in WWFFL scoring. Clearly a very successful RB timeshare which you don't expect because usually it's the opposite but not in this case.

- By the way Fuck You Julio Jones and your 50 points costing me a legit shot at the playoffs and beating me in two leagues and I'm sure those that have you and started you in week 13 they say FU for you wonderful 4 points.
- PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: I got two—honestly #1 might be a repeat but so be it, it's gotta be said; and sure #2 might just be mine personal issue but it's gotta come up with some of you sometime. 1) Sometimes when you're in the shitter you need to use a courtesy flush. Sometimes its cause the terd is too big if you don't break it halfway out and other times it's because the stench is gawd gagging awful. Yes, it's so awful it spreads on the floor, if you're in a building, or in the house, or rented house on the trip, where a courtesy flush could cut that awful smell in half. Granted some toilets are auto-flush or flush with such force you get sprayed if you're sitting on the toilet, but give it a go. 2) Compact car parking assigned spots is for compact CARS only. I don't give a fuck if you think your Lexus SUV is a compact SUV, because I guaranfuckingtee you are not calling it that to anyone else that asks you, stay the fuck out of the compact designated car parking stall. You make it impossible to turn the corners properly to allow for proper entry and exit traffic flow because you stick out to damn far. Just simply drive a little farther up the structure. I bet you're also getting as close to the elevator as possible so you don't have to walk as far but yet you are going to the WAC anyway. The WAC is Wisconsin Athletic Club which means these people are going to work out hence making the concern of walking fewer steps mind boggling to me.
- I'm so sick of choking while attempting to shoot 300. First 10 last night, great release, great speed, felt great, ball never came up. 289. Please don't take this as I'm not better than you because I am but I'm tired of being the guy that people are shocked I don't have a 300 or to say, you'll get it. Maybe I don't want it. Okay, pity session is over.
- We're fans of Ed Sheeran here at HQ's.
- Hard to believe there's only 3 weeks left, including this one, in the WWFFL season.

A look around the WWFFL:

We'll keep what Jimmy started and see if we can't add to it to have a little fun. I want to take a look at the draft and see where each team is at with their first 6 to 8 picks, we'll see how it goes. I'll just list players name and position rank or just call them doodoo as in a fucking piece of shit that won't flush regardless of how much you try. I've preached your team is made in rounds 3 or 4 to 7 or 8. Guys you draft in the 1st and 2nd need to live up to expectations or you're fucked but it's the depth you build and I'll just say the remainder of your starting lineup and 1 or 2 bench guys to perform during bye weeks.

Legion of Doom(11-1)#1 in PF-LoD judiciously uses the waiver wire because they draft so damn good and typically players available on the waiver are not as good as those on the team. I do not count kickers and return team/dee's. Let's take a look and y'all see why LoD is 11-1, ready to break the record for best record and win a 7th ring. Yeah, you read that right, a 2nd ring. His only draft mistake was Dez and was that really a mistake? LoD makes a killing on drafting guys that slumped the previous, are young and talented, year that we all forget about or have on our little DND(Do not draft) cause they killed us so please pay special attention to round 3 and 5. To give you a comical look at PF and PA, LoD leads in both talk about your double trouble, Jeezus. 1.3-LeVeon-#2, 2.8-Dez-#23, 3.3-Gurley-#1, 4.8-ARobinson-OUCH, 5.3-Hopkins-#2, 6.8-CJAnderson-#27, 7.3-Abdullah-#25, best pick and difference maker 17.3-Thielen-#4.

Freedom Fighters(8-4)-Go Freedom Fighters is sweating making the playoffs and with 4 teams at 6-6 they just need one win and they're in. Then anything can happen and they could go from 2nd worst to first. They had a solid draft but the question remains will the old guys hold out for 16 games. They face the Red Division in the last two games and with the rivalry game against High Rollers next and finishing against a hard charging Godfather anything can happen and if they finish 8-6 it comes down to tiebreakers. 1.9-Jordy-#37, 2.2-Brady-#3, 3.9-Kelce-#1, 4.2-LMiller-#12, 5.9-MLynch-#31, 6.2-DParker-WAIVED, 7.9-SWatkins-WAIVED-Terd, 8.2-Fitzie-#6--Best FF pick in the draft 8.2 Fitzie.

FLOUNDER(6-6)-How can I not reference FLOUNDER floundering @ 6-6 and like the entire Black division not wanting to take control and put it away. Has BY FAR the easiest schedule of the Black division teams with games against the Black division starting with the Big HURT and finishing with MIT. Looking to become the 3rd repeat champ they are the favorite right now to come out of the Black division which would mean a showdown with the Fighters in the playoffs as it stands now and as we all know anything can and will happen in the playoffs. 9th in points scored and 2nd in points allowed, they get it done with great/smart QB play and amazing defense. 1.2-ARodg-IR, 2.9-JAjayi-#29, 3.2-Fournette-#10, 4.9-Jeffery-#15, 5.2-DAdams-

#10, 6.9-Lacy-#83, 7.2-Martavis-#60, 8.9-Wentz-#2. Best pick easily Wentz and continues the QB factory that is FLOUNDER. Word of advice here if you're in another league draft FLOUNDER's #2 QB.

Smoke~N~Mirrors(6-6)-For fucks sake S~N~M was 2-5 and clawed their way to 6-6 and we already hear about him being 2-4 and making the playoffs and winning it what do you suppose will happen here talking about using FA and spending $30+ on players. His PF was greatly boosted by the 206 last week. Unlucky for S~N~M they face the crazy good RED Division the last two games. Of the 6-6 teams they got it rough with rivalry and spoon game this week with xXx and finishing with High Rollers. 1.4-ABrown-#1, 2.7-GRONK-#3, 3.4-McCaffrey-#11, 4.7-KAllen-#5, 5.4-DCook-IR, 6.7-Edelman-IR, 7.4-Snead-TERD, 8.7-Big Ben-#8. Best Pick(S)-Always draft Antonio but I'll say Keenan Allen quietly the #5 WR.

xXx(6-6)-xXx just knows how to throw the ball and coach up WR's. Deano, like FLOUNDER with QB's, always has 4 WR's he can start any given week making lineup decisions fun because he's picking between legit starters with solid floors and not ass clowns with only upside. Throw in a stud TE this year and all they're missing is a RB. xXx needs a RB coach but they're looking good this year but easily have the most difficult remaining two games. They get spoon rivalry game with S~N~M and then finish against the DOOM. But as they say if you want to be the best you have to beat the best and xXx has it in them. 1.6-Julio-#3, 2.5-McCoy-#7, 3.6-Baldwin-#13, 4.5-Brees-#12, 5.6-DThomas-#21, 6.5-JGraham-#3, 7.6-DMartin-TERD, 8.5-DJax-#35. Best pick Marvin Jones Jr @12.5 #11WR.

Godfather(6-6)-As is the case most years G is so close yet so far away. Crazy to think 4 teams sit at 6-6 and G is the lowest ranked. They could potentially knock two playoff hopefuls out while helping their own cause with DR this week and ending with the Fighters. Tough road no doubt but not impossible. Godfather's defense is killing them as the games come down to track meets and who has the ball last. They win the last two and get some help they return to the playoffs with a chance to finally win this league. That #1 QB in Wilson surprised me. 1.7-O'dell-IR, 2.4-AJ Green-#9, 3.7-Cooks-#8, 4.4-RWilson-#1, 5.7-GOlsen-IR, 6.4-THill-#16, 7.7-Diggs-#25, 8.4-KHunt-#4. Even though he's fallen off a bit best pick 8.4 Kareem Hunt.

Dr. Shrimp(5-7)-The good Dr was 4-3 at one point and then his shit ass luck and everything turning to shit in the WWFFL took over and they now sit at 5-7 with a slim shot at the playoffs and a shot at the Beer Bowl. We all know he doesn't want to lose that 2 years in a row but hopefully this year he'll actually be on the trip and not use some grotesque facebook picture posting foot injury as an excuse. Of course I tease because looking at that fucking thing everytime the Dr has a chance you thank God he didn't lose his foot. Back to fantasy football and how Snake bitten this franchise truly is. They start out hot every year and then all hell breaks loose and they usually finish in the 5-8 spots where you play for nothing other than high score for the week. They need to start with a win which won't be easy starting unlucky week 13 with Godfather and if things go awry they could face HURT with as a Beer Bowl primer in 14. Given Dr's love for Seattle I'm going highlighter green. 1.1-DavidJohnson-OUCH, 2.10-JHoward-#15, 3.1-TYHilton-WAIVED, 4.10-Cousins-#4-TRADED, 5.1-KBenjamin-TERD, 6.10-Ertz-#2, 7.1-ESanders-#46, 8.10-Mariota-#23. Best picks because I can't pick one and both should have went before many TE's drafted before, 6.10-Ertz and 9.1-Delanie-#5,

Men in Tights(5-7)-Another fucking year finally draws to a close with MIT desperately attempting to avoid the Beer Bowl. MIT has the most brutal schedule to finish the year facing the first place teams in both divisions starting with the unbeatable DOOM and finishing with FLOUNDER. MIT has a glimmer of a chance at making the playoffs but a whole hell of a lot has to go their way and that just doesn't happen like it did in the old days when the rules favored MIT because we all know MIT was the only team to ever win with a rookie keeper, never mind tBH won their title on the bog shoulders of GRONK and that they were the only team to trade future draft picks and that MIT was upended by the worst to first FLOUNDER last year in the 'ship. Let's look at why MIT is so awful this year cause you can pick up 40 FA's but just remember they're FA's for a reason. MIT also took #8 despite the curse that goes with it because they were trying to relive the glory days. 1.8-DFreeman-TERD-#21, 2.3-DMurray-TERD#17, 3.8-TheCriminal-SSPD-#8, 4.3-Pryor-TERD-#115, 5.8-JReed-TERD-WAIVED, 6.3-GoldenT-#17, 7.8-Newton-#6, 8.3-Luck-TERD-WASTED PICK. Best pick was not a draft pick at all it was the FA acquisition of the Jaguars defense. You could argue the Criminal as he and the Jags carried this shitstorm of a team prior to the SSPD.

High Rollers(4-8)-I am shocked to see HR at 4-8 because losing seasons are few and far between for them. They are a model of consistency but have been bit by a very difficult schedule, or timing of some of their games, nagging injuries and draft picks not living up to their draft slot. HR leads the WWFFL in unlucky losses with 3. With a little help and taking care of their own business they can avoid a trip to the Beer Bowl. The road is there to take as they start off with the luckiest team based on lucky team of the week stats in the Fighters and then travel to S~N~M. Two potentially winnable games and could have triple the excitement if they win out. Single they probably avoid the Beer Bowl, double-could knock Fighters out of the playoffs, and triple could knock S~N~M out the playoffs. 1.5-Evans-#18, 2.6-MGordonIII-#5, ICrowell-TERD-#26, 4.6-Winston-WAIVED, 5.5-Crabtree-#24, 6.6-Crowder-#39, 7.5-DerekCarr-#19, 8.6-Rudolph-#8. Best pick is a tough one because HR had a tough draft with guys not living up so I'm going with MGIII as the #5 RB but he's not very consistent.

The BIG Hurt(3-9)-I don't know if they've solidified their spot in the Beer Bowl. So you're saying there's a chance...HURT finishes with the Dr; and if Dr loses in week 13, and tBH wins, tBH would own the head to head tiebreaker so who knows. Did you follow that? tBH finishes in the division which is always easier and has FLOUNDER in week 13. This is the first year in a long time tBH just couldn't get the offense going. They are usually near the top in scoring but not this year. HURT is focusing on losing the Beer Bowl. You should know losing the Beer Bowl means you don't bring the drinks. HURT fell into the Homer trap many of us fall into. Please note in your memory banks that Amari Cooper is an LoD 5th round+ type pick. 1.10-MThomas-#12, 2.1-ACooper-TERD-#34, 3.10-JLandry-#7, 4.1-MRyan-#15, 5.10-TMontgomery-TERD-, 6.1-MBennett-TERD, 7.10-CHyde-#9, 8.1-JMixon-#20. Best draft pick in my opinion was Joe Mixon and it's not the HURT's fault he plays for Cincy who cannot judge true talent.

Finally, Tommy the Stat Man has returned to the INK

The Stat Man --- Keeping the lineup stuff in here but adding some fun stats the Stat Man texted me and thought you all might enjoy this. What you are about to see will boggle your mind. Let me preface it by saying that the INK Staff supports this league in many ways and one of them is giving to the kitty. Let's start with future draft pick trade numbers which does not include those made at the draft. MIT-13, HR & S~N~M-8, Dr-xXx-6, Mr Vegas & tBH-4, sucking wind-3, LoD-2, Godfather-1, Jagov's-0. Fun little WWFFL history, Dr-tBH-xXx only teams to every pull off a three team deal. Yes, these teams traded players and draft picks and went on to vote future draft picks out of the league. Dr got the draft pick while xXx and tBH got players. Another fun little stat is the BIG Hurt won his only title in part to rookie keeper rule. tBH wisely picked up Gronk after DOOM released him and went on to win the title after keeping GRONK. No, on to a very fun stat. Below are the totals giving to the kitty. Keep in mind Kid set the record one year by spending $40 on waiver picks. This includes transactions through week 12 of this year. As you can see Kid has spent an annual WWFFL house payment and then some more than others in the league.

I left how many points on the FUCKING bench?

One of the most important decisions we make after the draft is who to put in our starting lineup each week. It can obviously be the difference between winning and losing and we all know how important every win is while looking at the playoffs. Thinking about the stat man I thought this might be fun to look at. I like numbers and this is the perfect woulda, coulda, shoulda item to look at, and a great addition to an already great publication. This is a huge pain in the ass to look up. While we all hate losing I am pretty sure every single one of us wouldn't mind losing if we knew we started the best possible lineup. I am in other leagues where the league hosting website already shows this, but I digress. The losses that are the toughest for me are the ones I make the bone head fucking decision to start one player over another and it bites me in the ass in the form of a loss. Keep in mind the bench scoring can be slightly skewed by bye weeks and teams with more than 2-QB's.

Weekly Highest Scoring Bench Player:

1. Kareem Hunt	Godfather	45	Win
2. Trevor Siemian	xXx	32	Win
3. Stefon Diggs	Godfather	37	Win
4. Cam Newton	Men in Tights	39	Loss
5. Carson Wentz	FLOUNDER	36	Win
6. Kirk Cousins	Dr. Shrimp	32	Win
7. Jameis & Alex Smith	HR & S~N~M	31	Loss and Loss
8. Jack Doyle	S~N~M	30	Win
9. Jared Goff	Freedom Fighters	32	Win
10. Jared Goff	Freedom Fighters	32	Win
11. Keenan Allen	Smoke~N~Mirrors	39	Win
12. Philip Rivers	Legion of Doom	35	Win
13. Alex Smith	Smoke~N~Mirrors	45	Win

Picking starters each week is the hardest, see the proof in the losses below:

Some of these are obvious you would never start the bench player but just thought this would be interesting. There could be more than one team each week but I am going to pick the most obvious exclusion.

1. Smoke~N~Mirrors – Had Keenan Allen's 14-points on the bench while starting the fragile Danny Woodhead and his 6 points and early exit while losing to the DR. 107-110.
2. FLOUNDER - In a game of picking the incorrect TE had FLOUNDER played Hunter Henry and his 15 instead of Jared Cook's 6 he wins. But if the BIG Hurt plays the ancient I have no idea how he keeps getting it done Witten it doesn't matter.
3. The BIG Hurt - I really wanted to give it to xXx seeing they lost by 4 but couldn't because they wouldn't have won with any other legal lineup variation. It's very difficult picking starting WR's and seriously how does Amari Cooper only score 1 fucking point but if tBH starts either Hogan and his 22 they beat MIT.
4. Men in Tights - I could have went with S~N~M starting Kamara and he beats the Dr but I picked myself because I benched Cam after he couldn't do anything against the Saints awful defense but he went off for 39 so now I'll follow the points and he'll fuck me.
5. Godfather - As FLOUNDER pointed out we had multiple close games and it as it should be. Sphincter tightening worry going right through to Monday night. Had Godfather started Zach Miller and his 12 points instead of Evan Engram's goose egg he would have beat MIT handily.
6. Smoke~N~Mirrors - Minus the obvious of putting a kicker in his lineup had he avoided the homer pick of Aaron Jones, with Montgomery playing mind you, and started the RB hook of McCaffrey they would have won easily even without a kicker.
7. Smoke~N~Mirrors - Homer Simpson fails again by starting Brett Hundley, Jeezus take off those green and gold glasses and stop smoking that green and gold cock. Start either of his actual starting QB's and then win easily as they lost 73-75 to FLOUNDER.
8. Men in Tights - Devin "Fun" Funchess is not so fun and had MIT started Tate or Sanu they would have won but ended up losing 118-128 while Fun put up 3 points.
9. Men in Tights - While I could have went with xXx they should never start Henry over McCoy so I just cannot pick him but if they could play 4-WR's they'd be set. MIT started pick a fucknutunderperformingjockstrap Murray or Freeman and left Golden on the bench but if they are smart and start MR Tate they beat Godfather.
- 10.FLOUNDER - Martavis "dumbass" Bryant was put in the starting lineup instead of Davante Adams and I do get benching Adams, but really, for Martavis when JuJu has taken over his role. Martavis scored 9 while Adams had 20 which would have given FLOUNDER the win over FF as they lost 93-98.
- 11.High Rollers - I haven't picked HR for this and it's tough to question the lineup submitted because it's solid but had they played the Steeler dee (13) at home instead of the enticing Chiefs (4) at the Giants they would have won as they lost 98-100.
- 12.FLOUNDER - this was the closest game and if FLOUNDER would have started Hunter Henry (18) and Benched Jared Cook (1) the wouldn't have lost 90-97.

13.FLOUNDER - Gotta go back to back because no other team was close and once again had FLOUNDER started Hunter Henry instead of Jared Cook they would have tied HURT so who knows with tiebreakers.

The website has this cool thing called MER, or Manager Efficiency rating, which basically means did you start your optimal lineup. I'm assuming we won't see a 100% MER but for shits and giggles I'll list each week's MER just for some fun.

Week 12 Recap

It's week 12 recap time and thanks to Tommy for breaking down the tiebreakers on the message board. These games weren't close so there isn't much explanation needed.

Smoke~N~Mirrors(-5) @ xXx - GAME OF THE WEEK - I took xXx to cover and they didn't come close and sure could have used 50 from Julio in this game but they still would have lost so if you're going to lose why not do it in style by getting the low score for the week and giving up the high score for the week. Besides Deano picks which spoon he is and now Kid has to decide if they spoon sans clothes. The kicker is the guy picking the spoon goes first but for those of you concerned don't you worry your pretty little heads they trade off each night. Just a word of warning if you decide to go in the bedroom to wake them up the morning wood is just a tad bigger than you would expect and how the mold into each other will truly make you jealous and very envious. S~N~M 143-xXx 78 26-21

High Rollers @ Freedom Fighters(-10) - I took the Fighters to win and cover and they did and in the process clinched their first ever WWFFL playoff appearance in their 2nd year. Don't look now but there's a good chance we have the two newest franchise owners win a title in back to back years. HR-86-FF-127 27-21

Legion of Doom(-18) @ Men in Tights - Took LoD to win and obviously cover and it happened and for a brief moment while listening to the Monday night game on the radio MIT thought they had a chance and then LeVeon got the point train rolling with a 30 yard reception. Game over. Who fucking cares. DOOM-112 MIT-100 27-22

Godfather(-12) @ Dr. Shrimp - Took Godfather to win but Dr to cover and that wasn't close. Godfather keeps their playoff hopes alive with a 113-88 win over the Dr. Good news for Dr as Dr keeps Dr's Beer Bowl hopes alive with a loss as they look to repeat that honor. 27-23

The BIG Hurt @ FLOUNDER(-3) - Took FLOUNDER to win a cover a sloppy game but they forgot they had a chance to get in the playoffs with a win. HURT could sneak out of the Beer Bowl with a win in week 14 thanks to this huge road victory. 27-24

Week 14 Wag's

They're all games of the week as every game has playoff implications, actual playoffs or the BEER BOWL. So they are all meaningful and simply listed here for your enjoyment. Best of luck picking your best lineup when all is said and done because while the mistakes you made earlier in the year are the reason you are where you are right now mark my words your lineup mistakes the next 3 games will haunt you the entire offseason. And if you are like the Super Bowl and WWFFL Bowl losers, Falcons and MIT you may not recover from that disappointment the following year. Good luck, you're gonna need it!!!

Legion of Doom (-6.5) @ xXx - DOOM can accomplish what no other team has and that's win 13 games in the regular season. You damn right they want that record. xXx needs a win and some help to make the playoffs but as we always say just get in and you never know what will happen. DOOM is the only team to win the title from the 1 seed so the other playoff teams will keep that in mind but getting hot at the right time is critical. Should xXx get in they will go back to back against the DOOM which no one has ever beat DOOM back to back but there's a first time for everything. You sleep naked spooning another guy there's no reason to think as things get sweaty there isn't some penetration so never say never. xXx got a pretty good 35 from Brees and Julio on Thursday night. This game comes down to QB-TE and Dee which is not the draft strategy you follow but ironically enough these 3 positions can separate you from your opponent weekly. I'm taking DOOM because of the THU results as they get lucky # 13 and a shot at ring number 7.

High Rollers @ Smoke~N~Mirrors(-13) @ Two teams with very different reasons for wanting a win. Funny that first sentence still fits as S~N~M wins they wrap up the Black Division and could league the lead in points scored and prepare for a playoff matchup with Fighters. HR wins and they muck up the Beer Bowl matchup and if they lose they get to prepare for a two week battle for the outhouse trophy. S~N~M already in serious trouble as Kamara leaves THU contest concussed and I'll say this I don't expect Allen to have at least 10 catches and 100+yards with a TD for a 4th straight week & GRONK is suspended. This all points to HR getting the W. SO you know what that means, S~N~M finds his Dee playbook just when they need it and win 84-79. I'm taking HR to win this game and for sure cover leaving the Beer Bowl contestants tiebreakers more confusing and leaving S~N~M rooting for another 3-time champ to win so they back into the playoffs.

The Big BURT @ Dr. Shrimp(-1) - It's the battle to avoid the Beer Bowl and there is really only one winner. Loser is in (I'm assuming as I really need to reread Tommy's post and I'm not doing that now as I have deadlines. HURT got 27 from their stud and are off to a great start and the Saints dee even chipped in with 7. Right now Dr going with the two TE set. Kirky boy would love to payback the Dr for sending him packing same with Hogan paying back HURT. This one comes down to RB's and K's as Dr can only to come close to the kicker points HURT is putting up. The assumption is this game is played in the 90's as both teams are methodical in matriculating it down the field so the advantage goes to HURT as they're a 3rd of the way with two players FINAL. Just to make the Beer Bowl more confusing I'm taking the HURT to win and cover as this game could end in a tie.

Godfather(PK) @ Freedom Fighters - the Fighters really have nothing to play for except what could be the fun of reminding Godfather they potentially knocked Godfather out the playoffs. It's simple for Godfather, win and they're back in the playoffs with a chance to win what they covet most. However, as is normal in fantasy sports and the WWFFL, simple is NEVER simple. Studs shat the bed, while benched fringe guys go off and I'll say it again those damn fucking kickers and dee can be the difference between winning and losing now. Godfather got 5 from his kicker which isn't great so they feel behind it already. I'll add here it also comes down to matchups and if your stud has a shitty matchup you still have to play them. #1 and #3 QB scorers square off and the #3 QB has the better matchup. Godfather needs their TE to match Kelce and Fighter's kicker to have at most 5. I'm taking the Fighters to break Godfather's heart, but if everything else shakes out the right way Godfather could still sneak in the playoffs and have a 1st round matchup with DOOM.

FLOUNDER @ Men in Tights(-3) - FLOUNDER wins coupled with an S~N~M loss and they look to repeat and remain the CHAMP. MIT has something to say about that however. Do not think MIT doesn't remember FLOUNDER beating them for the SHIP and trust me MIT hasn't gotten over that loss and wants nothing more than to send FLOUNDER to the fat, drunk, and stupid reunion a little sooner than FLOUNDER would like not to mention avoid the fucking beer bowl in the process. This one comes down to QB play and can Cam keep up with Wentz which is highly unlikely as this gum chewing fuckwad won't do shit at home and somehow Carolina will win again. I'm taking MYSELF, I'm taking MIT to win and cover and knock the CHAMP out of the playoffs and into the who gives a fuck four that do nothing for two weeks which really just sucks. Figures FLOUNDER starts Henry now.

GREEN BAY PACKERS

If I asked you when the season started if you would be worried about the game in Cleveland you would've thought I completely lost my mind. But I don't know about you I'm concerned about this game even though Cleveland is winless because I don't think the Packers will have the best QB on the field in that game.

Milwaukee Bucks

Rumors of getting DeAndre Jordan or Jahlil Okafor, I'll take Jahlil because I still think he's got talent and I'm not giving up Brogdon or Middleton and Henson for Jordan.

Milwaukee Brewers

Go Bucks Go.

WWFFL INK© Letters

Turns out the INK website got some email and the ink editor hasn't checked it for months. Thanks for the kind words and we simply do what we can on a weekly basis. Some weeks are clearly better than others and that's just how life is. It's best to really try and enjoy it when you can.

Blurred Fantasy Football Vision

Joke Time

Here's a life hack you may not have heard. Do you want to eat a free meal? I got a great way that doesn't involve dropping some salt in your wine glass and calling the waiter over. Here's what you do. When you get the bill you simply write the amount of the bill as a negative in the tip line and total it which is $0. Then simply leave.

WWFFL INK© 2018 trip information:

No the WWFFL INK© is not sponsoring the draft trip. However we have uncovered some interesting facts. The WWFFL INK© editor has asked for opinions and received three we're fairly certain. The information can be found https://www.spring-brook.com/rental_properites/bearclaw-cabin/ and it has 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms and sleeps 14. I think we are all in agreement that Shakes sleeps on the lowest level--the coldest level. I cannot wait to see what that room in the very last picture is all about.

For the WWFFL INK©, this is Zam. Thanks for appreciating the hard work and long hours that goes into each and every INK. It really is time consuming and glad the two guys I work with always leave very early Friday allowing me to finally be alone and work on this sucker. But it's fun and I truly enjoy writing. Go ahead, make fun, I don't care, I'll keep writing. Shit, this was a lot of work but next time you're out think of WWJD. I wouldn't vote for fucking Trump that's for sure but to each his own. And I do laugh at Dr's criminal digs because it is well documented Trump has assaulted women and he's the fucking president of the US of A. But hey, what do I know, I'm going to light a blunt right now. Peace!! Do you read this? It is truly funny how Zeke is a criminal but our current President is not. Did Trump actually hit someone, I don't know, but he has touched and groped inappropriately and many were unwelcomed. We'll get off our high horse because as they say, people in glass houses right.
