

Club Member Duties

Help recruit new members: ask your friends; share your 4-H story with others.

Contribute ideas for planning the program for the year.

Take part in the meetings and contribute in some fashion.

Keep meeting agendas, minutes and personal notes so you can remember what is going on in the club.

Maintain a good spirit and interest in the club. Be positive!

Welcome other 4-H club members and encourage others to contribute.

Build relationships with all individuals and leaders of the club

Contact Extension office if you are not getting answers or advice you need.

Attend the officers' training workshop so you can step up to officer leadership in the future with confidence.
