Next Sunday Mass: 10.30a.m. and 1.00p.m. St. Mary and St. Finnan, Glenfinnan. Seventeenth Sunday of the Year, B.

Confessions: Saturday 9.30-10.00 a.m. and 6.00-6.30 p.m.

In our prayers we remember the souls of all the Faithful Departed, especially those whose anniversaries occur during the course of this week: Tony Swainson, Duncan MacMaster, Christina MacLean. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

There will be a special Mass for the Sick in St. John's on Tuesday, 31st July at 7.00p.m. during which parishioners will receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. How can we decide if we should be anointed? A sick person may be anointed before surgery, whether or not a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. Elderly people may be anointed if they have become weakened even though no serious illness is present. The anointing of the sick is administered to bring spiritual and physical strength during an illness.

Let us remember in prayer those who are sick and anxious about what the future holds for them. Let us be especially mindful of those in hospital, undergoing treatment or awaiting the results of tests. We entrust them to the healing power of Jesus.

There will be church cleaning after Mass on Wednesday morning. Thank you to the volunteers who come along every month to clean the church

Bishop Robert Barron, the Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, will give a talk in the Usher Hall in Edinburgh on 6th September. Bishop Barron is a popular Catholic author, theologian and communicator. He will explain how Catholics can best evangelise a contemporary culture that often seems hostile to Christianity. Tickets cost £10(£6 concessions) and are now on sale. Contact 0131 2281155 for tickets or visit usherhall.co.uk.

Fr. Roddy will run the Fort William marathon next Sunday, 29th July to raise funds for Parkinson's Disease, specifically for the Parkinson's Support Group at Oban's North Argyll Carers Centre, which his mother, Catherine McAuley, attends. The support group offers sufferers peer support and a safe environment to talk about how the disease affects their day-to-day lives. A sponsor form is available at the back of the church if you would like to donate.

Reflection

"Lord, look upon us and take pity on us, for at times we too are like sheep. Save us from a blind following of the herd. Help us to listen to your voice, to trust you and to follow you, even if it means leaving the crowd and walking a lonely path. Lead us from fear to trust, from error to truth, from hate to love, from war to peace, from despair to hope, and from death to life". (Fr. Flor McCarthy, SDB).
