MAJOR: BIOLOGY

FOCUS: PRE-MED

HOMETOWN: TORONTO, CANADA

I was born and raised in Toronto, Canada, but I have a lot of extended family here in Texas that I had spent plenty of time with over the years, so I don't think of myself as a complete outsider. I have been active in community service since high school and also worked as a camp counselor back home. Having these roles drew me to the community service opportunities that were offered to me once I join BU MEDS freshman year. I am a sports fanatic, with my deepest fandoms being with the Raptors and Steelers. If you ever want to watch a big game with me, any sport, I might be up for it. I have a pet milk snake back home. My favorite style of restaurant is Brazilian steakhouse. I plan on working towards a career in healthcare that allows me to work directly with patients because I really enjoy interacting with the amazing people I meet through service work and would like to continue to have those opportunities in my professional career.
