

Kristin Miller, M. Ed.

With over 18 professional years in the field of education and early childhood, Mrs. Miller holds a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education and a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction. She is the founder and owner of, eTeachingMe, which provides educational services for children, parents, and other educators. As well as, an independent curriculum writer and publisher of her early childhood full online curriculum, Love N Learn At Home. She is a registered Master Trainer within the Texas Early Childhood Professional Development System and is a certified Child Care Health & Safety Consultant with Healthy Child Care Texas. Mrs. Miller is contracted as a high quality trainer with the national organization Child Care Support Network, multiple Workforce Solutions throughout Texas, Educational First Steps, CampFire, and ChildCareGroup out of Dallas, & Harris County Department of Education. Furthermore, she serves as a trained group leader for the parenting program The Incredible Years.

As a Master Trainer, she has presented to a variety of early education audiences to include educators, program directors, center owners, parents, and adult college students obtaining their education degree. She has presented to audiences ranging in size from 10 to over 500 participants, to also include Mrs. Miller since becoming registered in 2017, has spent over 400 hours presenting at both large state-wide conferences to small privately owned centers. As a passionate trainer and presenter, she loves to share her gift and knowledge with those in the field serving children.

As an expert child care health and safety consultant, Mrs. Miller has experience working with child care centers and large organizations, such as Williamson County Head Start Centers and TXAEYC with the ASQ-Project, to provide preventive health and safety assistance through environmental needs assessments, policy writing, health and safety screenings, developmental screenings for children and parents, and high profile consulting to create and empower high quality of services for programs to serve the greater good of children and families.

Kristin specializes in child care health and safety standards, afterschool and summer camp trainings, curriculum, parent coaching, behavior management, child development, and developmental milestones for infants through elementary aged children. As a servant leader, her hope and faith is to inspire and motivate others to be the best they can be as a professional and as a parent, for the best interest of the children they love.

When she is not working, her time is dedicated to faith and family. She enjoys RV camping and traveling with her husband and children, going to the beach, decorating, eating at new restaurants, watching movies, scrapbooking, and being involved within her local church community, as she once served as the Director of Children and Family Ministries in a Methodist Church in Texas for 5 years. Mrs. Miller also serves at her children's elementary school, where she is a member of the PTA. She resides in Georgetown, Texas with her husband, 3 children, and 2 dogs.