Important Information

Vaccinations and de-wormings are very important for your puppy. A puppy's immunity must be built up by a series of vaccines/vaccinations.

It is in the best interest of the puppy if you keep it away from other animals outside of your home and from travelling until the puppy has had a chance for its vaccines to become effective. This is usually around 4 months of age.

DO NOT take your new puppy into any pet store until the puppy has had a chance for its vaccines to become effective. Pet stores are prime breeding grounds for a contagious disease, virus, parasite, protozoan and fungus.

Following the steps above will decrease the chance of your puppy getting sick from a contagious disease, virus, parasite, protozoan and fungus until its vaccines have had time to become effective.

Please put your puppy on a heartworm preventative and a flea & tick medicine. Your veterinarian can tell you when to start these medications and can suggest which medications to use. It is extremely important that your canine remain on these medications for life.

Suggestions:

Food - The puppy is on a current diet of Eukanuba Large Breed Puppy Food. We recommend feeding Eukanuba Large Breed Puppy Food for the first 2 years before switching to an adult dog food.

Calcium Supplement - We like to put our puppies on Grow Sure 100 by Lambert Kay. It is a calcium phosphorus vitamin supplement to promote optimal bone development. This is totally optional.
