

LEAVING THE PAST IN THE PAST

The story of the two monks is about leaving the past in the past in order to focus on the present and the future. One of the ways we hold onto the past is lack of forgiveness. Think of everyone in your life you hold a grudge against, including yourself. Your assignment is to write a forgiveness letter to them or forgive them in person. Write about your experience below.

知恩