

DID YOU KNOW...

You have contingency planning resources! Life is full of the expected and the unexpected. Planning for those contingencies will help you and your firm face the future with confidence. If your firm has been considering the importance of putting in place a complete contingency plan, GLJ Benefit Consultants' family of business partners can help. The below table is a quick snapshot of contingency planning resources available to your firm.

Contingency Planning Need	Education and Resources	Want more information?
Cyber Liability Insurance	Quote and bind a cyber liability insurance policy online at ALAcyber.com .	Kurtis Shepherd, Cyber Insurance Specialist phone 888.835.0850 email kurtis@breachpro.com
Disability Insurance	For more information on putting in place the right policy for you and your firm, read the following educational pieces by Principal, an ALA VIP Business Partner specializing in group benefits, " Strategies for income protection—attorneys and law firm partners " and " The ins and outs of disability ".	Simply ask your current broker for more information on the Principal Disability options for ALA members or contact GLJ Benefit Consultants at 800.892.8826 or at services@gljbenefitconsultants.com .
Long Term Care	To learn more about long term care insurance planning, check out the Legal Management January 2017 article produced by LTC Solutions, ALA's VIP Business Partner specializing in long term care solutions, " Long Term Care: A Threat to Retirement Security ".	Ryder Kimmes, LTC Specialist phone 877.286.2852 email rkimmes@ltc-solutions.com
Contingency & Succession Planning	To learn more about Contingency & Succession Planning, check out the ebook " Succession and Contingency Planning for Law Firms ," produced by NextPath Legal, ALA's VIP Business Partner specializing in contingency and succession planning.	phone 614.385.2198 email info@nextpathlegal.com

GLJ Benefit Consultants is committed to providing members of the Association of Legal Administrators (ALA) access to quality, essential resources to help each member firm build their extraordinary law firm based on the individual firm's goals and needs.

