

Temptation

This teaching explores the age-old methods of temptation. How temptation can deceive the Christian into sinning and clearly defines the only solution provided for the way out of temptation.

TEMPTATION

A hand holding a red apple, symbolizing temptation. The apple is bright red and glossy, and the hand is dark-skinned. The background is black, making the apple and the text stand out.

What is the source of temptation? Is it me?

Who or what motivates temptation?

Is there a common pattern to temptation?

Does temptation have a purpose?

Is everyone tempted in the same way?

Has God provided, for the Christian, a solution to falling into temptation?
