Stefanie King owns and operates Sky Blue Equestrian Center. She sat on her first horse over 50 years ago and has over 25 years of experience training both horses and riders. Her main focus as an instructor is forming a strong foundation in a balanced seat, safety and harmony between horse and rider, while building confidence.

Sky Blue Show Team also competes at local shows throughout the year. As the coach of Sky Blue Equestrian IEA Team, she is proud to say Sky Blue Equestrian Center has a rider going to regionals.

She also runs a therapeutic riding program for children and adults with special needs. She is an EAGALA certified equine specialist, working with clients using an unmounted model of therapy. She currently has a program at a school for children with all types of physical, mental and emotional trauma.

All these programs demonstrate how truly healing horses can be for everyone!
