The Rockwall-Heath Hawks defeated the North Mesquite Stallions 19-0 in a mercy-rule shortened five innings on Thursday night to extend their winning streak to four games.

Casey Curtin led the way with three hits, including a first inning grand slam, and six RBIs. Oklahoma State commit Kaden Krowka powered the Hawks on the mound with five shutout innings and only one hit allowed.

The Hawks came out firing in the first inning with eight quick runs to chase the Stallions' starting pitcher after just a third of an inning. The onslaught continued from there as they posted runs in each inning before the game was called.
