2020 Rockwall WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba committed to the Ohio State Buckeyes on Sunday night.

Smith was coming off his visit to Columbus for their Saturday win against Nebraska, a school he'd previously visited and had interest in.

Smith, who's the brother of Canaan Smith-Njigba, a left fielder in the New York Yankees organization, will join 2019 five-star Garrett Wilson as the second WR commit from Texas in as many years.

The four-star is in the middle of an incredible junior campaign, racking up 75 receptions for 1372 yards and 16 touchdowns. Smith has been the favorite target for quarterback, and future rival, 2019 Minnesota commit Jacob Clark.

Smith is rated as a four-star wide receiver, the 288th best player and the 59th best WR in the country per 247 Composite. With a strong junior campaign already underway, if Smith-Njigba shines in camps and 7-on-7 tournaments in the offseason, he could see his rating skyrocket.

For now, the talented 2020 prospect looks towards his regular season finale against Killeen on Nov. 16 and then towards the playoffs as the Yellow Jackets have clinched a playoff spot.
