When you see the Volunteers, this season you're bound to see Ty DeArman all over the field playing a multitude of positions. Arlington Bowie's versatile star told us about his mindset heading into 2018.

The usual starter at free safety the Arizona State commit can be found playing receiver and even a little quarterback for Bowie. DeArman brings athleticism no matter where he touches the field and can bring an almost instant spark.

Calm and quiet in demeanor lets his play on the field do the talking for him, DeArman is taking senior year one day at a time.

"I try not to look any further than football season, none of it has hit me yet," he said as he watched his teammates boarding the bus.

Bowie will open the season Friday against Flower Mound Marcus with hopes get things on the right track early.
