From The Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you so much for your generous response to my pulpit appeal last weekend. I know that this was a sacrifice for many of you during this time of the year. However, everything, even the smallest amount, helped in a big way to offset our expenses. For those who were not at Corpus Christi Parish last weekend, I mentioned to the parishioners that the parish has found itself in a financial situation. Due to rising expenses such as property insurance, medical insurance and pension payments for the pastor, parish sharing to the diocese, electric bills, technology bills, repairs, etc. and due to the drop in our collections during the summer months, we found out, rather hap-hazardly, that somehow our operating account had been depleted to $3,000. I just paid FPL and salaries this week. This left us with approximately $39,000 in accounts payable.

Last weekend's collection of nearly $10,000 was a huge bonus for us. Thank you to our parishioners and a number of visitors who gave me sizeable checks. Praise be Jesus Christ! I appreciate your kindness in helping us to become fiscally healthy.

I will re-mention my commitment to this cause as well. I am cutting back on some services in the parish until we become more fiscally sound. Until then, I ask those who did not get this message if you would be willing to increase your level of giving. Please prayerfully consider what you can do to help us meet our ongoing expenses. We are a parish that is growing rapidly in terms of our ministries and use of our parish facilities. In the coming months, more people will be joining us for mass, including our snowbirds. Please help me to keep us strong for the future. God bless you all.

Now some funnies:

#1 – FUNNY SIGNS:

Church sign: "No bungee cords. We encourage leaps of faith."

Bumper sticker seen on a car in Portage, MI: "Real women love Jesus."

Sign on a T-shirt: "TEENAGER FOR SALE: Comes equipped with rolling eyes, deep sighs, and sarcastic comments. Plays video games, and texts 200 wpm. NO REASONABLE OFFER WILL BE REFUSED."

Sign outside Holy Trinity Catholic Church: "Too hot to keep changing sign. Sin bad, Jesus good. Details inside."

#2 – Wedding invitation sent to friends and family of a couple: "The favor of a reply is kindly requested by May 5th."

- ___ Enthusiastically attend
- ___ Regretfully decline
- ___ Regretfully attend
- ___ Enthusiastically decline.

#3 – "A woman declared: 'My husband and I married for better or worse. He couldn't do better and I couldn't do worse.'"

#4 – The prospective father-in-law asked, "Young man, can you support a family?" The groom-to-be replied, "Well, no sir, I was just planning to support your daughter. The rest of you have to fend for yourselves."

5 – Lowell Yoder of Holland, OH, passed along these kids' observations on marriage:

Asked how do you decide whom to marry, Kristen, age 10, replied, "No person really decides before they grow up who they're going to marry. God decides it all way before, and you get to find out later who you're stuck with."

Asked what most people do on a date, Martin, age 10, replied, "On the first date, they just tell each other lies, and that usually gets them interested enough to go for a second date."

Asked how a stranger can tell if two people are married, Derrick, age 8, replied, "You might have to guess, based on whether they seem to be yelling at the same kids." Asked what do you think your Mom and Dad have in common, Lori, age 8, said, "Both don't want any more kids."

#6 – Lady Astor to Winston Churchill: "Winston, if you were my husband, I'd put poison in your coffee."

Churchill replied: "Lady Astor, if you were my wife, I'd drink it."

Film is about Sr. Clare Crockett, a budding actress who leaves her career and the open doors to fame behind to give her life to God. Some might see this as a total failure. But was it? Those who knew Sr. Clare speak in this film. After her tragic death in the 2016 earthquake in Ecuador, the failure might be seen as having reached its devastating end. Yet, many think that the story doesn't end there. Thanks to the Servant Sisters' archives with over 15 years of photos and videos of Sr. Clare's life. HM Television Presents this documentary to show you the real-life story of this Sister who gave her ALL to God, keeping NOTHING back.

Here is a link to the trailer and some more information about the film.

Treasures from Our Traditions

Careful readers of the "Treasures" will have noticed that the two columns about the oldest monastic communities in the United States refer to the colonial states. The Louisiana Purchase gained a great treasure for our nation, the Ursuline monastery of New Orleans. Among the greatest pioneers of that city were nuns who came from France on a perilous voyage in 1727, pestered by pirates and tossed by fearsome storms. These were genteel, well-educated Ursulines, yet their first task was to roll up their sleeves and open a hospital to care for the pestilence-ridden colony. Next, they opened a school for girls and launched a plan to educate the women being shipped over from France to marry settlers. In this way, they had enormous influence in molding patterns of family and domestic life.

At Christmastime in 1814, the threat of a British assault on the city was growing. On the terrifying night of January 7, 1815, the women of New Orleans gathered in the monastery chapel to pray that the city be spared from destruction in battle. The mother superior made a vow to have a Mass of Thanksgiving on that date every year should the Americans win. That night, Our Lady of Prompt Succor, to whom the nuns had great devotion, became the protector and patron of this great city. The convent in the French Quarter is the oldest standing building in the Mississippi valley, and the only surviving building of the French colonial period. The nuns relocated in 1824, but their old monastery is preserved as a museum and archives for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. The school the nuns began, Ursuline Academy, is the oldest continuously operating Catholic school, and school for women, in the United States.
