From The Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

As I mentioned last weekend, the Florida Catholic Advocacy Network (FLCAN) is asking parishioners of Corpus Christi Parish to be part of a statewide campaign. Catholic social teaching invites us to love and pursue justice for our neighbors; to protect the sacredness and uphold the dignity of human life at every stage of development; to seek peace and promote the common good. Through the Florida Catholic Advocacy Network (FLCAN) Catholics across Florida can stay informed and take action to important public policy issues. Postcards will be available in the pews for you to complete next weekend. Please drop your postcard in the collection basket. You can also text FLCAN to 50457 to receive FLCAN notifications via text. You can also join online at www.flaccb.org.

Also, a note to parents whose children attend Catholic schools or are being homeschooled. If your children will be receiving sacraments this year, i.e., First Reconciliation, First Communion or Confirmation, it is mandatory that they be enrolled in our parish sacramental formation program. This is not an option. It is a policy of the diocese. Please contact our DRE, Sue Ann Nanney at the parish office to enroll your child in religious education.

Finally, we all know how hot it has been during this month of September. Please avoid the temptation to dress down in shorts, flip flops and T-shirts. I am not suggesting that you pull out your tuxedos or finest dresses. However, please dress as though you are going to meet the King of Kings, Jesus Our Savior. Remember Mass is not a McDonalds Restaurant.

And now some funnies:

#1 - Redneck Medical Terminology:

Benign: what you be, after you be eight.

Artery: the study of paintings.

Bacteria: back door to the cafeteria.

Barium: what doctors do when the patients die.

Cesarean section: a neighborhood in Rome.

Cat scan: searching for kitty.

Cauterize: made eye contact with her.

Colic: a sheep dog.

Coma: a punctuation mark.

Dilate: to love long.

Enema: not a friend.

Fester: quicker than someone else.

Fibula: a small lie.

Hangnail: what you hang your coat on.

Impotent: distinguished, well-known.

Labor pain: getting hurt at work.

Medical staff: a doctor's cane.

Morbid: a higher offer.

Nitrates: cheaper than day rates.

Outpatient: a person who has fainted.

Pap smear: a fatherhood test.

Post operative: a letter carrier.

Recovery room: place to do upholstery.

Rectum: pretty near killed him.

Secretion: hiding something.

Seizure: Roman emperor.

Tablet: a small table.

Terminal illness: getting sick at the airport.

Tumor: one plus one more.

Urine: opposite of you're out.

Varicose: near by/close.

#2 – Jewish Humor:

A Hasidic man goes to his rabbi and says "Rabbi, you'll never believe what just happened to me; my son left home and became a Christian!" And the rabbi says "unbelievable! My son also left home and became a Christian!"

So the man asks the rabbi "well, what should we do about it" and the rabbi says "we should pray to G-d and seek His guidance." And so they pray and G-d answers and says "you'll never believe what happened to me"

#3 - A company hired a very energetic and ambitious man as the new CEO. The new boss was determined to rid the company of all slackers. Touring the facility, the CEO noticed an idle young man leaning against a wall. The room was full of busy workers, and the CEO wanted to let them know that he meant business.

"You're fired," the CEO told the young man. "Pick up your pay and get out here and don't come back."

Please with himself, the CEO then looked around the room and asked, "Does anyone want to tell me what that goof-ball did here?"

From across the room a voice said, "He was the pizza-delivery man from Domino's."

#4 – An Episcopal diocesan bishop went to an unfamiliar church to celebrate the Eucharist. There was a microphone on the altar, and being uncertain whether it was switched on, he tapped it gently with no result. So learning very close to it, he said in a loud whisper, which echoed around the church, "There is something wrong with this microphone." The well-trained and responsive congregation, very familiar with the latest liturgical language, replied at once: "And also with you!"

Treasures from Our Traditions

How long have there been parochial schools in the United States? Longer than you may imagine. The Jesuit fathers opened Saint Mary School in Philadelphia in 1782 in the first light of independence. Catholic and Protestant squabbles about the nature of education forced the Fathers to make this risky and innovative venture in the heart of the city. The school was closed by a devastating fire in 1902, but reopened in 1968 as St. Mary Interparochial School, the first example of a shared parochial school. It is also the only Catholic school within the confines of a national park. This is the "Mother School" of this uniquely American institution. Many parochial schools, especially in "national parishes," were established to preserve the culture and language of the "old country," and also to protect young people from prejudice. In other countries, Ireland for one, the Church is authorized to run national schools, sometimes under the sponsorship of a parish. In still other places, such as Quebec, publicly-funded "separate schools" were administered by the Church. Whenever the state funds Catholic schools, normally enrollment is guaranteed to all applicants. The Quebec system was dismantled in 1998 when the state decided to reorganize schools along linguistic lines rather than religious affiliation. Parochial schools require considerable sacrifice, but they endure as a distinctive treasure of the Church in the United States.
