From The Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Don't forget about our parish picnic sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. It will be held at Vail Point Park on Sunday, November 11th from 12:00 p.m. to 5 p.m. There will be hamburger, hotdogs, and games for the children. This is a family parish event. Everyone is welcome to come. There is no charge.

The K of C is also promoting a fundraiser for smoke meats for Thanksgiving. There will be members of the K of C in front of the church taking your orders.

Also, ChoroRuss will be performing a concert in our parish church at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend. Four highly talented Russian singers will be singing religious and folk songs from their native land. At the end of the concert there is a love offering taken up.

I will be organizing a children's choir for the parish. All children as young as 2nd grade are welcome to attend. The choir practice will be on Wednesday, November 14th @ 5:30 p.m. in the parish church. We will be practicing songs for masses and for the upcoming holidays.

Next weekend, the Giving Tree will begin. Parishioners will choose an ornament to provide gifts for children, families and seniors in need. Also, the homeschool families will be selling Advent Candles.

The second collection this weekend is for the Building Fund.

And now some funnies:

#1 - Three weeks after Myra's late husband's cremation Doris went to visit her sister Myra. While they were having a cup of tea by the coal fire, Doris asked her sister, "Why do you keep on turning that hourglass?"

Myra retorted, "Bill's ashes are inside the hourglass. I keep on turning it because the lazy oaf wouldn't work while he was alive, so I'm making him work now!!"

#2 - Unable to attend the funeral after his father died, a son who lived far away called his brother and told him, "Do something nice for Dad and send me the bill."

Later, he got a bill for $200.00, which he paid. The next month, he got another bill for $200.00, which he also paid, figuring it was some incidental expense.

Bills for $200.00 kept arriving every month, and finally the man called his brother again to find out what was going on.

"Well," said the other brother, "you said to do something nice for Dad. So I rented him a tuxedo."

#3 – A funeral service was being held in a small town funeral parlor for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service the pallbearers are carrying the casket out, when they accidentally bumped into a wall and shook the casket. Hearing a faint moan, they open the casket and found out that the woman was actually alive!

For ten more years, the women enjoyed good health and then suddenly died. A ceremony is again held at the same funeral parlor. At the end of the ceremony, the pallbearers are again carrying out the casket.

As they make their way toward the door, the husband cries out, "Watch out for the wall!"

#4 – In a yoga instruction class, a woman very proficient in yoga was doing her exercises very smoothly when she noticed a new student, a man, struggling and groaning with his exercises on the mat next to her. "You just like my husband," she said to the man, sympathetically. "Sorry to hear that," the man replied.

#5 – A pastor was doing a funeral the first week of a new appointment and therefore was unable to say anything at all about the man whose body was in the casket. So he asked for those present to share. He said, "Is there anyone here how can say something good about this man?" Silence.

He went on, "Is there someone here who can say something pretty good about this man?"

More silence.

Again the pastor went on, "Is there someone who can say anything at all that is at least somewhat positive about this man?" Finally an older gentleman stood up and said, "Well, he wasn't as bad as his brother.!"

#6 - Steve, Bob and Jeff are working on a very high scaffolding. Suddenly, Steve falls off. He is killed instantaneously. After the ambulance leaves with Steve's body, Bob and Jeff realize they'll have to inform his wife.

Bob says he's good at this sort of sensitive stuff, so he volunteers to do the job.

After two hours, he returns, carrying a large pizza. "So did you tell her?" asks Jeff.

"Yep", replies Bob.

"Say, where did you get the pizza?"

Bob informs Jeff. "She bought it for me."

"WHAT??" exclaims Jeff, "you just told her that her husband died and she bought you a pizza?"

"Sure," Bob says.

"WHY?" asks Jeff.

"Well," Bob continues, "when she answered the door, I asked her, 'are you Steve's widow?' 'Widow?', she said, 'no, no, you're mistaken, I'm not a widow!' So I said: 'I'll bet you a pizza you ARE!'"

Treasures from Our Traditions

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the "Great War") on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures. Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier's cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or "chapel," the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as "Saint Martin's Lent" or "Martinmas," that later developed into the season of Advent.
