From The Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend Father Amarnath Nagothu, MSFS will be addressing the congregation at all the masses concerning a special mission appeal to India. Father Amar is the pastor of Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Jacksonville and is making his mission appeal with the permission of our bishop. The second collection will be for the mission appeal. Please be generous.

The Annual Giving Tree begins this weekend. The tree will be set up on the front porch of the church. Parishioners will choose an ornament to provide gifts for children, families and seniors in need. Last year we took in over $8,000 plus many gifts. Our hope is that this year we can give more help to those in need.

Our homeschool families will also be selling Advent Candles.

And now some funnies:

#1 – A farmer was driving along the road with a load of fertilizer. A little boy, playing in front of his house, saw him and called, "What've you got in your truck?"

"Fertilizer," the farmer replied.

"What are you going to do with it?" asked the little boy.

"Put it on strawberries," answered the farmer.

"You ought to live here," the little boy advised him. "We put sugar and cream on ours."

#2 – There is value in a good vocabulary. In a man's retirement, he called an old friend and asked what he was doing these days. He replied that he was working on "Aqua-thermal treatment of ceramics, aluminum and steel under a constrained environment."

The retired man was very impressed. Upon further inquiry, however, he learned that his friend was actually washing dishes with hot water under his wife's supervision.

#3 – A mother was concerned about her kindergarten son, Timmy, walking to school. He didn't want his mother to walk with him. She wanted to give him the feeling that he had some independence, but yet know that he was safe.

So she asked a neighbor if she would please follow him to school in the mornings, staying a safe distance, so he wouldn't notice her. The neighbor agreed. The next school day the neighbor and her little girl set out following behind Timmy and another little neighbor boy as they walked to school. She did this for a whole week.

Timmy's friend noticed this and asked Timmy, "Have you noticed that lady following us to school all week? Do you know her?"

Timmy casually replied, "Yeah, I know who she is. That's Shirley Goodnest, and her daughter, Marcy."

"Shirley Goodnest? Who the heck is she and why is she following us?" Timmy's friend asked.

"Well," Timmy explained, "every night my Mom makes me say the 23rd Psalm with my prayers, 'cause she worries about me so much. And in the Psalm, it says, 'Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life,' so I guess I'll just have to get used to it."

#4 - Farmer Joe decided his injuries from the accident were serious enough to take the trucking company (responsible for the accident) to court. In court, the trucking company's fancy lawyer was questioning farmer

Joe. "Didn't you say, at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine?'," questioned the lawyer.

Farmer Joe responded, "Well I'll tell you what happened. I had just loaded my favorite mule Bessie into the....."

"I didn't ask for any details," the lawyer interrupted, "just answer the question. Did you not say, at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine!'"

Farmer Joe said, "Well I had just got Bessie into the trailer and I was driving down the road..."

The lawyer interrupted again and said, "Judge, I am trying to establish the fact that, at the scene of the accident, this man told the Highway Patrolman on the scene that he was just fine. Now several weeks after the accident he is trying to sue my client. I believe he is a fraud. Please tell him to simply answer the question."

By this time, the Judge was fairly interested in in Farmer Joe's answer and said to the lawyer, "I'd like to hear what he has to say about his favorite mule Bessie."

Joe thanked the Judge and proceeded, "Well as I was saying, I had just loaded Bessie, my favorite mule, into the trailer and was driving her down the highway when this huge semi-truck and trailer ran the stop sign and smacked my truck right in the side. I was thrown into one ditch and Bessie was thrown into the other. I was hurting real bad and didn't want to move. However, I could hear ole Bessie moaning and groaning. I knew she was in terrible shape just by her groans.

Shortly after the accident, a Highway Patrolman came on the scene. He could hear Bessie moaning and groaning so he went over to her. After he looked at her he took out his gun and shot her between the eyes. Then the Patrolman came across the road with his gun in his hand and looked at me. He said, "Your mule was in such bad shape I had to shoot her. How are you feeling?"

Treasures from Our Traditions

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the "Great War") on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier's cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or "chapel," the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as "Saint Martin's Lent" or "Martinmas," that later developed into the season of Advent.
