Second Sunday of

Advent

December 9, 2018

Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights;
look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God.

From The Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Next Saturday is the Parish Christmas Party in the Marian Hall. We want all of our parishioners to enjoy a delicious meal along with Christmas music and a visit from Santa for all of our children. This event is free. Right now, we are close to being completely full. You need to contact the parish office to find out if there is seating availability for your party.

I will be joining a group of pilgrims for another Camino trip this coming April of 2019. It is called the French Camino and will be shorter in duration and mileage as opposed to the one I did last October. There will be an information meeting on Sunday, December 16th @ noon in the parish office.

Don't forget about the Giving Tree. Our parish volunteers will be on the porch before and after all the weekend masses to receive your donations. Remember that your gifts help a needy family in a very big way.

Next weekend, a vendor from the Holy Land will be selling olive wood carvings. This is a good opportunity to purchase a beautiful spiritual gift for loved one. At the same time, you will also be supporting the Christians in Bethlehem.

Mark your calendar. There will be a parish Advent Penance Service on December 19th at 7 p.m. in the parish church. This is a great opportunity to make a good confession to prepare yourself for the birthday of Jesus. A number of priests will be present to hear your confession.

And now some funnies:

Christmas Gifts for Men

Buying gifts for men is not nearly as complicated as it is for women. Follow these rules and you should have no problems.

Rule #1:

When in doubt - buy him a cordless drill. It does not matter if he already has one. I have a friend who owns 17 and he has yet to complain. As a man, you can never have too many cordless drills. No one knows why.

Rule #2:

If you cannot afford a cordless drill, buy him anything with the word ratchet or socket in it. Men love saying those two words. "Hey George, can I borrow your ratchet?" "OK. By-the-way, are you through with my 3/8-inch socket yet?" Again, no one knows why.

Rule #3:

If you are really, really broke, buy him anything for his car, a 99 cent ice scraper, a small bottle of deicer or something to hang from his rear view mirror. Men love gifts for their cars. No one knows why.

Rule #4:

Never buy men bathrobes. Once I was told that if God had wanted men to wear bathrobes, he wouldn't have invented Jockey shorts.

Rule #5:

You can buy men new remote controls to replace the ones they have worn out. If you have a lot of money buy your man a big-screen TV with the little picture in the corner. Watch him go wild as he flips, and flips, and flips.

Rule #6:

Do not buy any man industrial-sized canisters of after-shave or deodorant. I'm told they do not stink - they are earthy.

Rule #7:

Buy men label makers. Almost as good as cordless drills. Within a couple of weeks there will be labels absolutely everywhere. "Socks. Shorts. Cups. saucers. Door. Lock. Sink." You get the idea. No one knows why.

(ABSOLUTELY TRUE!!)

Rule #8:

Never buy a man anything that says "some assembly required" on the box. It will ruin his Special Day and he will always have parts left over. No one knows why.

Rule #9:

Good places to shop for men include Northwest Iron Works, Parr Lumber, Home Depot, John Deere, Valley RV Center, and Les Schwab Tire. (NAPA Auto Parts and Sears Clearance Centers are also excellent men's stores.) It doesn't matter if he doesn't know what it is. ("From NAPA Auto, eh? Must be something I need. Hey! Isn't this a starter for a '68 Ford Fairlane? Wow! thanks.")

Rule #10: (ABSOLUTELY TRUE!!)

Men enjoy danger. That's why they never cook - but they will barbecue. (No one knows why) Get him a monster barbecue with a 100-pound propane tank. Tell him the gas line leaks. "Oh the thrill! The challenge! Who wants a hamburger?"

Rule #11:

Tickets to a Cowboys game are a smart gift. However, he will not appreciate tickets to "A Retrospective of 19th Century Quilts." Everyone knows why.

Rule #12:

Men love chain saws. Never, ever, buy a man you love a chain saw. If you don't know why - please refer to Rule #7 and what happens when he gets a label maker.

Rule #13:

It's hard to beat a really good wheelbarrow or an aluminum extension ladder. Never buy a real man a stepladder. It must be an extension ladder. No one knows why.

Rule #14:

Rope. Men love rope. It takes us back to our cowboy origins, or at least The Boy Scouts. Nothing says love like a hundred feet of 3/8" manila rope. No one knows why.

AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn't big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God's salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters.

According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for God's salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees.

It can't get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God.

Sanctuary Lamp

It burns continuously by the main Altar and reminds us of the presence of the Eucharistic Lord in the Tabernacle. If you would like to make a gift of twenty dollars to burn the Sanctuary Lamp in memory of a loved one or for a special intention for a week, please call the parish office at 797-4842
